
[26th December, 2018]

ENACTED by the Parliament of Zambia.

1. (1) This Act may be cited as the Income Tax (Amendment) Act, 2018, and shall be read as one with the Income Tax Act, in this Act referred to as the principal Act.

(2) This Act shall come into operation on 1st January, 2019.

2. Section 29 of the principal Act is amended by the—

(a) deletion of subsection 1(a) and the substitution therefor of the following:

(1) in ascertaining business gains or profits in a charge year, there shall be deducted the losses and expenditures, other than of a capital nature, incurred in that year wholly and exclusively for the purposes of the business, except that a deduction shall not be allowed on gross interest expense that exceeds thirty percent of the tax earnings before interest, tax, depreciation and amortisation; and

(b) insertion of the following new subsections immediately after subsection (2):

(3) Despite subsection (1) (a), interest, including disallowed interest, is subject to the deduction of withholding tax in accordance with section 82A.
(4) Interest on which a deduction is not allowed under this section may be carried forward and treated as incurred during the next charge year, except that interest shall not—

(a) exceed thirty percent of the tax earnings before interest, tax, depreciation and amortisation; and

(b) be carried forward for more than five years.

(5) Section 97A applies to interest which is allowable as a deduction under this section or which would, but for this section, be allowable as a deduction.

(6) This section does not apply to an institution registered under the Banking and Financial Services Act, 2017, the Pension Scheme Regulation Act, or the Insurance Act, 1997.

(7) For the purposes of this section—

“gross interest expense” means the interest paid or accrued by a business in a charge year;

“interest” includes interest on all forms of debt, payments that are economically equivalent to interest and expenses incurred in connection with the raising of finance to the extent that the incidental costs of raising finance are not covered by section 44(n); and

“tax earnings before interest, tax, depreciation and amortisation” means the sum of taxable income, gross interest expense, depreciation and amortisation.
3. Section 30A of the principal Act is amended by the deletion of subsection (2) and the substitution therefor of the following:

(2) For the purposes of this section indexed losses shall be computed as follows:

\[ 1 + \frac{(R_2 - R_1)}{R_1} \times \text{loss brought forward} \]

Where: \( R_1 \) is the Kwacha against the United States dollar at the average exchange rate for the accounting year preceding the accounting year in which the loss is being claimed; and

\( R_2 \) is the Kwacha against the United States dollar at the average exchange rate for the accounting year in which the loss is being claimed.

(3) The Kwacha against the United States dollar exchange rate to be used for the purpose of subsection (2) is the average Bank of Zambia mid-rate for the relevant accounting years.

4. Section 33 of the principal Act is amended by the deletion of subsection (3) and the substitution therefor of the following:

(3) For the purposes of this section indexed capital allowances shall be computed as follows:

\[ 1 + \frac{(R_2 - R_1)}{R_1} \times \text{capital allowance} \]

Where: \( R_1 \) is the Kwacha against the United States dollar at the average exchange rate for the accounting year preceding the accounting year in which the capital allowance is being claimed; and

\( R_2 \) is the Kwacha against the United States dollar at the average exchange rate for the accounting year in which the capital allowance is being claimed.

(4) The Kwacha against the United States dollar exchange rate to be used for the purpose of subsection (3) is the average Bank of Zambia mid-rate for the relevant accounting years.

(5) Despite the other provisions of this Act, a capital allowance granted under this section shall be granted for a charge year irrespective of the period covered by the accounts being assessed.
5. The principal Act is amended by the repeal of section 43B.

6. Section 44 of the principal Act is amended by the repeal of paragraph (o) and the substitution therefor of the following:

   (a) provision for a contingent employee cost that is not paid out to the employee in the charge year; and

   (p) mineral royalty payable under the Mines and Minerals Development Act, 2015.

7. Section 55 of the principal Act is amended—

   (a) in subsection (1), by the deletion of the words “books and accounts” and the substitution therefor of the words “books, accounts, documents, records and other information”;

   (b) by the insertion of the following new subsection immediately after subsection (1):

       (2) Despite subsection (1), businesses covered by Part IX shall retain books, accounts, documents, records and other information relating to the business for ten years from the date of the last entry in those books, accounts, documents, records and that other information.;

   (c) by the renumbering of subsections (2), (3) and (4) as subsections (3), (4) and (5) respectively; and

   (d) by the deletion of the figure “(3)” in subsection (5) and the substitution therefor of the figure “(4)”.

8. Section 64A of the principal Act is amended by the—

   (a) insertion of the following new subsections immediately after subsection (2):

       (3) The Commissioner-General may make a standard assessment requiring a person carrying on the business of betting and gaming to pay a presumptive tax as set out in Part III of the Ninth Schedule.

       (4) The Commissioner-General may appoint a person as an agent to withhold turnover tax before making any payments for the supply of goods or services.
9. Section 65 of the principal Act is amended by the—

(a) deletion of subsection (2) and the substitution therefor of the following:

(2) Subject to subsection (3), an assessment shall not be made for a charge year after six years from the end of that charge year.

(3) Despite subsection (2), an assessment may be made for a charge year after six years from the end of that charge year—

(a) in cases of fraud or wilful default; or

(b) for the purposes of—

(i) sections 21, 88, 91, 97A, 97B, 97C, 97D or 113, except that an assessment for the purposes of sections 97A, 97B, 97C and 97D shall not be made after ten years from the end of that charge year;

(ii) part VII;

(iii) paragraph 25 of the Fifth Schedule; or

(iv) granting tax credits as provided in the Charging Schedule.; and

(b) renumbering of subsections (3) and (4) as subsections (4) and (5) respectively.

10. The principal Act is amended by the repeal of section 97AA.

11. Section 97C (7) of the principal Act is amended by the deletion of the words “ten thousand” and the substitution therefor of the words “eighty million”.

12. Section 100 (1) (e) of the principal Act is amended by the—

(a) insertion of the following new subparagraph immediately after subparagraph (ii):

(b) renumbering of subsection (3) as subsection (5).
(iii) in relation to a person liable to pay skills development levy in accordance with the Skills Development Levy Act, 2016—

(A) in the case of negligence, zero point two five percent of the amount;
(B) in the case of wilful default, zero point five percent of the amount; and
(C) in the case of fraud, zero point seven five percent of the amount;

of any income omitted or understated, in consequence of such failure, incorrect return, information or submission; and

(b) renumbering of subparagraph (iii) as subparagraph (iv).

13. The Second Schedule to the principal Act is amended—

(a) by the deletion of paragraph 6 (1) and the substitution therefor of the following:

(1) There is exempt from tax the income of a public benefit organisation established for the promotion of religion or education, or for the relief of poverty or other distress, if—

(a) in relation to the people of the Republic, the income may not be expended for any other purpose; and

(b) the Minister has approved the exemption from tax the income of that public benefit organisation; and

(b) in paragraph 6 (2), by the deletion of the comma and the words “body or persons or trust” immediately after the word “organisation”.
