(3) Associated persons shall be regarded as a single person for purposes of determining the aggregate number of shares held by the associated persons in a bank or financial institution.

(4) The Bank may direct a financial service provider to suspend a shareholder's right to vote or receive dividends for any portion of the shares that are in excess of the limit of voting control specified under subsection (1).

(5) A financial service provider shall, where the financial service provider is directed by the Bank under subsection (4), submit, within thirty days of the direction by the Bank, a plan to dispose of any portion of the shares that are in excess of the limit of voting control to reduce a shareholder's voting control to the limit specified under this Act.

(6) The Bank may direct a financial service provider to implement or vary the plan submitted under subsection (5).

(7) A beneficial owner shall exercise the beneficial owner's voting rights only on shares that are entered, in the name of the beneficial owner, on the share register of a bank or financial institution.

(8) Subject to the other provisions of this Act, this section does not prevent a person from acquiring voting shares in a financial service provider for the purposes of implementing a corporate restructuring transaction in accordance with this Act.

(9) A person that contravenes this section is liable to pay an administrative penalty not exceeding one million penalty units.

Voting control limits for financial business

35. The Bank may determine voting control limits for a financial business.

Restriction on ownership of shares by trusts

36. A person, trust or any similar arrangement that controls another person's property or money under an arrangement or agreement, shall not own shares in a financial service provider, unless the beneficial owner and persons that control the trust, arrangement or agreement are identifiable, verifiable and comply with this Act and any other relevant written law.

Prohibition of effecting corporate restructuring transaction without approval

37. (1) Despite any other written law, a financial service provider shall not effect a corporate restructuring transaction without the prior written approval of the Bank.

(2) A financial service provider that contravenes subsection (1), commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding ten percent of that financial service provider's annual turnover or five hundred thousand penalty units, whichever is higher.

Corporate restructuring transaction

38. (1) Subject to section 37, a financial service provider may effect a corporate restructuring transaction with another company that is not a financial service provider, if the corporate restructuring transaction is in furtherance of the business of the financial service provider.

(2) A bank or financial institution may effect a corporate restructuring transaction with a financial business if the new entity shall be a bank or financial institution.

(3) A financial service provider may effect a corporate restructuring transaction with another financial service provider or another company where the corporate restructuring transaction involves the sale, transfer, disposal, acquisition or establishment of control, directly or indirectly, in whole or in part of the business of the financial service provider.

Application for approval to effect corporate restructuring transaction

39. (1) A financial service provider that intends to effect a corporate restructuring transaction shall apply to the Bank for approval in a manner and form determined by the Bank.

(2) An application referred to under subsection (1) shall be accompanied by the following information and documents:

- (a) the name of each financial service provider or company involved in the proposed corporate restructuring transaction;
- (b) a statement of the nature of the corporate restructuring transaction proposed to be entered into;

- (c) financial and legal due diligence;
 - (d) share purchase agreement and any financing agreement related to the corporate restructuring transaction;
 - (e) consent from the home supervisor;
 - (f) audited financial statements for the preceding financial year;
 - (g) business plan including projected financial statements;
 - (h) a labour transition plan for employees of the entities involved in the corporate restructuring transaction;
 - (i) an information communication technology integration plan detailing the systems to be integrated and decommissioned and the rationale for the information communication technology integration plan;
 - (j) a detailed plan for regulatory consolidation with appropriate timelines to achieve consolidated reporting; and
 - (k) a plan for transitional governance arrangements for the parties to a corporate restructuring transaction prior to the issuance of the amalgamation certificate under the Companies Act; and
 - (l) any other information and documents as the Bank may determine.

Cap. 388

(3) The Bank shall, in determining an application for approval to effect a corporate restructuring transaction under subsection (1), consider the—

- (a) capital adequacy of each financial service provider or a company for purposes of the proposed corporate restructuring transaction;
- (b) general financial condition, resources and history of each financial service provider or a company;
- (c) fit and proper requirements of the beneficial owners, shareholders, directors and senior management of the new entity;
- (d) prospects of profitability of the new entity's operation, if the corporate restructuring transaction is approved;
- (e) probable effect of the corporate restructuring transaction on competition in the financial sector;

- Cap. 417
- (f) requirements of the Competition and Consumer Protection Act;
 - (g) financial integrity of the parties involved;
 - (h) adequacy and transparency of the legal, financial, operational, managerial, governance and ownership structures of the new entity; and
 - (i) impact of a proposed transfer or assumption of assets, rights, liabilities or obligations on the financial soundness and operational continuity of a financial service provider and the purchaser of the assets, rights, liabilities or obligations.
- (4) The Bank shall, within one hundred and twenty days of receipt of a duly completed application as the Bank may determine, approve or reject the application.
- (5) The Bank shall, where the Bank is satisfied that the financial service provider has met the requirements of this Act, approve the application and specify the date on which the proposed corporate restructuring transaction shall take effect.
- (6) The approval of the Bank under subsection (5) shall, where a corporate restructuring transaction results in a merger or amalgamation, be subject to the issuance of an amalgamation certificate by the Patents and Companies Registration Agency or other legal requirements under the Companies Act.
- Cap. 388
- (7) The Bank shall, where the Bank rejects an application under subsection (4), inform the applicant, in writing, within seven days of the decision, stating the reasons for the rejection.
- Effect of corporate restructuring transaction
- 40. (1) Where a corporate restructuring transaction takes effect in accordance with this Act—
- (a) the assets and liabilities of the old entity or, in the case of a transfer of assets and liabilities, the assets and liabilities agreed to be transferred, shall vest in the new entity;
 - (b) the new entity shall submit a written statement to the Bank, confirming that the assets and liabilities of the old entity have been transferred in accordance with the approved restructuring proposal;
 - (c) the new entity shall have the same rights and be subject to the same obligations as were, immediately before the transaction took effect, binding on the old entity or, in the case of a transfer of assets and liabilities, the same rights and obligations as were applicable to the old entity with respect to the assets and liabilities so transferred;

- (d) the agreements, appointments, transactions and documents relating to transactions of the old entity, that were valid immediately before the corporate restructuring transaction took effect, shall continue to be valid and shall be considered to have been entered into with the new entity; and
- (e) a mortgage, bond, pledge, guarantee or other instrument relating to the corporate restructuring transaction given to secure past, present and future advances, facilities or services by the old entity, shall be considered to be a mortgage, bond, pledge, guarantee or instrument given to, or in favour of, the new entity.

(2) Following a corporate restructuring transaction, any assets, rights, liabilities and obligations of the old entity are considered to be transferred to the new entity in respect of which transfer a written law provides for registration, the new entity shall make an application, in writing, to the appropriate registration authority for registration of the transfer.

(3) Following a corporate restructuring transaction involving the sale, transfer, disposal, acquisition or establishment of control, directly or indirectly, of the whole or part of the business of a financial service provider, any assets, rights, liabilities and obligations of the transferor are considered to be transferred to the purchaser.

(4) Subject to subsection (2), the Registrar of Companies and the Registrar of Lands and Deeds shall make endorsements and alterations in the respective registers, for purposes of recording any transfer of property or rights and liabilities in the property arising from the corporate restructuring transaction where the Registrar of Companies and the Registrar of Lands and Deeds are satisfied that the—

- (a) Bank has approved the corporate restructuring transaction under this Act; and
- (b) corporate restructuring transaction has been duly effected through a deed, instrument, mortgage or other document.

(5) This section does not affect the rights of a creditor, except to the extent specified in this section and the documents relating to the corporate restructuring transaction.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

Responsibilities of directors
Cap. 388

41. (1) Subject to the Companies Act and this Act, a board shall be responsible for overseeing and controlling the affairs of a financial service provider.

(2) The functions of a board are to—

- (a) formulate and ensure the implementation of policies of a financial service provider in accordance with this Act;
- (b) ensure that sound corporate governance practices are integrated in the business operations of a financial service provider;
- (c) direct the affairs and business operations of a financial service provider;
- (d) ensure that the business of a financial service provider is carried on in compliance with all applicable laws, regulations and is conducive to safe and sound practices;
- (e) constitute committees of the board;
- (f) report to the shareholders, at an annual general meeting, on the internal controls and systems and information management systems of a financial service provider;
- (g) report to the Bank any material changes in the activities, structure and condition of a financial service provider;
- (h) obtain approval from the Bank for any proposed amendments to the articles of association of the financial service provider;
- (i) ensure that persons proposed for appointment as shareholders, directors or senior officers are fit and proper persons;
- (j) report to the Bank on matters that may adversely affect the suitability of shareholders, directors and senior officers; and
- (k) comply with requirements for anti-money laundering and countering terrorism financing and proliferation financing.

Board meetings initiated by Bank
Cap. 388

42. (1) Despite the provisions of this Act, the Companies Act, or the articles of association of a financial service provider, the Bank may, where the Bank considers necessary to safeguard the stability and integrity of the financial system, the interests of the financial service provider or its customers, direct a board to convene a meeting within three days of the direction.

(2) The Bank may appoint an observer to a meeting of a board convened in accordance with this section.

(3) Where a meeting is convened in accordance with subsection (1)—

(a) the quorum for the meeting shall be three directors or one third of the total number of directors, whichever is higher;

(b) decisions shall be taken by a simple majority of the directors present; and

(c) any decision taken in accordance with paragraph (b) shall be binding on a financial service provider.

(4) The Bank shall, where a board fails to convene a meeting as directed by the Bank in accordance with subsection (1), take action to safeguard the integrity of the financial system, the interests of a financial service provider and the financial service provider's customers.

43. (1) A financial service provider shall obtain prior written approval of the Bank before appointing a director or senior officer as may be determined by the Bank.

Qualifications
for appointment as director or senior officer

(2) Despite the Companies Act, or any other written law, a person is not qualified for appointment as a director or senior officer of a financial service provider if that person—

Cap. 388

(a) is not a fit and proper person to hold the relevant office in accordance with this Act;

(b) is below the age of twenty-one years;

(c) has been adjudged bankrupt by a court or has made an arrangement or composition with that person's creditors, within, or outside, the Republic;

(d) has been convicted of an offence involving fraud or dishonesty;

(e) is legally disqualified;

(f) has been suspended or removed from office under this Act or any other written law;

(g) is subject of a disciplinary process, criminal proceeding, in relation to fraud, dishonesty or gross negligence, an investigation by a law enforcement agency or a warrant of arrest;

(h) has been a shareholder, director, or senior officer of a company that has—

(i) been declared insolvent; or

(ii) gone into liquidation or has entered into a composition or any other arrangement with creditors within or outside the Republic;

(i) has been removed by a court, within or outside the Republic, from an office of trust on grounds of misconduct or breach of that trust; or

(j) is an expatriate who does not meet additional requirements for appointment as director or senior officer as the Bank may determine.

(3) A person shall not be a director of more than one financial service provider without the prior written approval of the Bank.

(4) A person shall not be eligible for re-appointment to a board of the same financial service provider after serving the full period of the term.

(5) A person who is a director or senior officer in a financial service provider whose licence is cancelled in accordance with this Act, shall not, without the prior written approval of the Bank, be appointed as a director or senior officer of another financial service provider.

(6) A bank or financial institution shall have a framework for dealing with cases where a shareholder, director or senior officer is being investigated by a law enforcement agency or has a warrant of arrest or is subject of a disciplinary process for fraud, dishonesty or gross negligence or is subject of criminal proceedings.

(7) A person who contravenes this section is liable to pay an administrative penalty not exceeding one million penalty units.

Independent non-executive directors to be in majority

44. (1) A board of a bank or financial institution may be constituted of executive and non-executive directors, except that the independent non-executive directors shall be in the majority.

(2) For purposes of this Act, a person who is a full-time salaried employee of a banking group shall not qualify for appointment as a non-executive director of the financial service provider.

Composition of board of financial business
Cap. 388

45. Despite the Companies Act, a board of a financial business shall, as a minimum, consist of three members.

46. (1) A board shall consist of directors with a balance of skills, diversity and expertise and collectively possess the relevant qualifications in relation to the size, complexity and risk profile of the financial service provider.

Balance of skills, diversity and expertise of director

(2) The Bank may, where a financial service provider does not comply with the requirements under subsection (1), direct the financial service provider to reconstitute a board.

47. (1) A board or each director individually shall immediately report in writing to the Bank if the board or director has, reason to believe that the financial service provider—

Reporting obligations of board and directors

(a) may not be able to conduct the financial service provider's business as a going concern;

(b) appears to be, or is likely to be, unable to meet all or any of the financial service provider's obligations as they fall due; and

(c) does not, or may not, be able to meet the financial service provider's capital requirements under this Act.

(2) A board or each director individually shall report to the Bank on money laundering, terrorism financing and proliferation financing in accordance with any other written law.

(3) The Bank may, where a board or director fails, omits or neglects to report to the Bank under subsection (2), suspend or dissolve a board or suspend or remove a director.

(4) A person who contravenes subsection (1) is liable to pay an administrative penalty not exceeding four hundred thousand penalty units.

48. (1) A director or senior officer of a financial service provider shall, in exercising the powers and discharging the duties of office, ensure compliance with this Act.

Conduct of director or senior officer

(2) A director or senior officer of a financial service provider shall cease to be a director or senior officer for the same reasons for the disqualification of appointment as a director or senior officer referred to under section 43(2), except where a bank or financial institution has a framework for dealing with cases of a stakeholder, director or senior officer in accordance with section 43(6).

(3) A person who contravenes subsection (1) is liable to pay an administrative penalty not exceeding one million penalty units.

Disclosure
of interest

49. (1) A director shall declare, annually, in writing, to a board the names and addresses of the director's associates and the material interests of the director.

(2) Subject to subsection (1), a director or senior officer of a financial service provider shall disclose, in writing, to the financial service provider, the nature and extent of the relationship where the director or senior officer—

(a) is a party to, or has a direct or indirect interest in, a contract or proposed contract with the financial service provider or in the granting of an advance by the financial service provider; or

(b) has a material relationship with a prospective party to a contract or a proposed contract with the financial service provider.

(3) A disclosure of interest to be made in accordance with this section, shall be made at a meeting of the board at which the question of entering into the contract or granting the advance is first considered, or if the director or senior officer is not, at the date of that meeting, interested in the proposed contract or advance, at a board meeting held immediately after the director or senior officer becomes interested.

(4) A director or senior officer with an interest or a material relationship with a party to a contract, shall not participate in a meeting of a board at which the contract is discussed and the director shall refrain from voting on any matter related to the contract, except that a departure of a director from the meeting, shall not disqualify the director for purposes of constituting a quorum.

(5) A director or senior officer shall not be required to make a declaration or give a notice in person, at a meeting of a board, if the director or senior officer delivers the notice and disclosure of interest to each director, at least seven days before the meeting.

(6) Where a director or senior officer fails to disclose an interest or material relationship as specified in this section, a court may, on the application of a financial service provider, shareholder or the Bank—

(a) set aside the contract on terms and conditions as a court may determine; or

(b) suspend the director or senior officer from office.

(7) For purposes of this section—

- (a) persons have a material relationship if they are associated persons, or a transaction relates to or is connected with the wealth, business or family interests of the person; or
- (b) a person has a material interest in an entity where the person owns, directly or indirectly, more than ten percent of any class of voting shares or is a director, proprietor or partner in the entity.

(8) A director or senior officer who contravenes this section is liable to pay an administrative penalty not exceeding two hundred thousand penalty units.

50. (1) The Bank may, in writing, direct the suspension from office for a period not exceeding six months, a director or senior officer who fails to take reasonable steps to ensure compliance by the financial service provider with the requirements of this Act or any other relevant written law.

Suspension or dismissal of director or senior officer by Bank and removal of shareholders

(2) The Bank may, at any time before the expiry of the period specified under subsection (1)—

- (a) extend the suspension from office, of the director or senior officer for a period that the Bank may determine; or
- (b) dismiss or reinstate the director or senior officer.

(3) A person shall cease to be a shareholder in a financial service provider where the Bank determines that the shareholder is not a fit and proper person to continue holding shares in the financial service provider.

(4) The Bank shall, where the Bank determines that a shareholder is not a fit and proper person under subsection (3), direct a financial service provider to—

- (a) offer the shares held by that shareholder to existing shareholders on a right-of-first-refusal basis, in proportion to their shareholding, and at a consideration to be agreed by the shareholders;
- (b) offer the shares held by that shareholder to a person who is not a shareholder in the financial service provider where existing shareholders are unable to take up the shares; and
- (c) not warehouse the shares held by that shareholder.

(5) Where a financial service provider is unable to dispose of the shares held by a shareholder in accordance with subsection (4), the shareholder shall not—

- (a) attend any meetings of the financial service provider and its board;
- (b) be represented, or have authority to appoint a representative, on a board; and
- (c) be paid a dividend.

(6) A person intending to acquire shares referred under subsection (4) (b) shall seek prior written approval of the Bank as the Bank may determine.

(7) A director or senior officer who contravenes this section commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding three hundred thousand penalty units or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years, or to both.

Fit and proper requirements for shareholder, director or senior officer

51. (1) The Bank shall determine fit and proper requirements for a shareholder, director or senior officer of a financial service provider.

(2) The fit and proper requirements referred to under subsection (1) shall include requirements relating to—

- (a) qualifications, skills and experience in financial operations relevant to the activities of a financial service provider;
- (b) probity, personal integrity and reputation;
- (c) competency and capability;
- (d) financial integrity;
- (e) availability and time commitment to responsibilities;
- (f) potential for conflict of interest; and
- (g) criminal record and professional conduct.

(3) The Bank may direct the removal of a shareholder, director or senior officer if the Bank considers that the shareholder, director or senior officer is not a fit and proper person.

Corporate governance standards and practices

52. (1) The Bank may issue a regulatory statement setting the minimum corporate governance standards and practices for financial service providers.

(2) A board shall develop a corporate governance charter in accordance with the provisions of a regulatory statement issued by the Bank under subsection (1).

53. (1) A financial service provider shall develop and implement policies to integrate environmental, social and governance practices in the financial service provider's operations.

Environmental, social and governance practices

(2) The Bank may direct, by regulatory statement, a financial service provider to enhance the financial service provider's risk management systems in relation to environmental, social and governance practices.

(3) A financial service provider shall disclose and report to the Bank on environmental, social and governance matters as determined by the Bank.

PART VI

BUSINESS OPERATIONS OF FINANCIAL SERVICE PROVIDERS

54. A financial service provider shall establish and maintain a principal administrative office in the Republic and inform the Bank, in writing, of the physical address of the principal administrative office.

Principal administrative office

55. (1) A financial service provider shall not change the physical address of the financial service provider's principal administrative office without the prior written approval of the Bank.

Change of physical address of principal administrative office

(2) A financial service provider that intends to change the physical address of the financial service provider's principal administrative office shall apply for approval to the Bank, at least sixty days before the proposed change, in a determined manner and form.

(3) The Bank shall, on receipt of an application under subsection (2), approve or reject the application.

(4) The Bank shall, where an applicant meets the requirements under this Act, approve the application.

(5) The Bank shall, where the Bank rejects an application under subsection (3), inform the applicant, within seven days of making the decision, in writing, stating the reasons for the rejection.

56. (1) A financial service provider shall use the name endorsed on the licence issued to that financial service provider under this Act—

Use and alteration of name

- (a) on letterheads, correspondence, official documents, electronic platforms, advertisements or other communication published or issued by the financial service provider; and

(b) in contracts to which a financial service provider is a party.

(2) A financial service provider shall not change the name endorsed on the licence issued to that financial service provider under this Act without the prior written approval of the Bank.

(3) The Bank shall issue a regulatory statement providing for the processes and procedures for use or change of a name endorsed on the licence issued to a financial service provider under this Act.

(4) A financial service provider who contravenes this section is liable to pay an administrative penalty not exceeding one million penalty units.

(5) The Bank may, in addition to the penalty referred to under subsection (4), direct a financial service provider to cease using the name subject of the contravention.

Business
hours

57. (1) A financial service provider shall remain open for business with the public during the operating hours determined by the Bank or other hours as the Bank may authorise.

(2) The Bank may, on application by a financial service provider, authorise the financial service provider to be closed on a business day subject to terms and conditions the Bank may determine.

holiday

58. (1) The Minister may, on recommendation of the Bank, declare, by statutory instrument, a day, or part of a day, as a bank holiday.

(2) Where an obligation to be discharged by a bank or financial institution falls on a bank holiday, the obligation shall be discharged on the next business day following the bank holiday.

(3) In this section, “bank holiday” means a day on which a bank or financial institution, except a branch of a bank or financial institution located at a port of entry, is not open for business to the public, whether or not that day is a public holiday.

PRUDENTIAL REGULATION AND SUPERVISION

Minimum
capital requirements

59. (1) The Bank shall determine the minimum paid-up capital and minimum regulatory capital requirements for a financial service provider.

(2) A financial service provider shall compute the financial service provider's regulatory capital in a manner determined by the Bank, in rules.

(3) A financial service provider shall commence operations with the minimum paid-up capital determined by the Bank under subsection (1).

(4) Despite subsection (3), the Bank may direct a financial service provider to commence operations and maintain a higher paid-up capital based on the risk profile of the financial service provider.

(5) A financial service provider shall maintain minimum common equity tier one capital, primary capital and regulatory capital or ratios related to capital as the Bank may determine.

(6) Despite subsection (5), the Bank may direct a bank or financial institution to maintain common equity tier one capital, primary capital and regulatory capital or ratios related to capital, in excess of the determined capital or ratios under subsection (5), where a bank or financial institution—

- (a) has been operating for less than three years;
- (b) has been having, or is expected to have, losses resulting in capital deficiencies;
- (c) has significant exposure to risk, including credit risk, concentration risk, market risk, cyber risk or operational risk;
- (d) has serious weaknesses in the quality of assets or earnings of the bank or financial institution;
- (e) is growing rapidly, internally or through acquisitions;
- (f) may be adversely affected by the activities or conditions of a holding company, subsidiary or associates of the bank or financial institution;
- (g) has deficiencies in ownership or management, shareholding structure, composition of board, directors or senior officers or risk management policies and procedures; or
- (h) is exposed to any other factors that may have an adverse impact on the financial condition of the bank or financial institution as the Bank may determine.

(7) A financial service provider shall not issue a share in the financial service provider's capital or other security, other than a bonus share or a share in lieu of dividend or other determined security, unless the financial service provider receives the full value of the share or other security in local currency.

Capital
conservation
buffer

60. (1) A bank or financial institution shall build up a capital conservation buffer in the form of common equity tier one capital as determined by the Bank.

(2) The Bank may determine different capital conservation buffer requirements for a bank or financial institution under this Act.

Countercyclical
capital buffer

61. (1) The Bank may direct a bank or financial institution to maintain a counter-cyclical capital buffer in form of common equity tier one capital.

(2) The Bank may adjust a counter-cyclical capital buffer for a bank or financial institution and announce the adjustment stating that the counter-cyclical capital buffer has been—

(a) increased;

(b) maintained; or

(c) decreased.

(3) Where the Bank announces—

(a) an increase in the counter-cyclical capital buffer under subsection (2)(a), a bank or financial institution shall increase the counter-cyclical capital buffer within a time determined by the Bank; or

(b) a decrease in the counter-cyclical capital buffer under subsection (2)(c), the decrease shall take effect immediately.

Designation of bank or financial institution as systemically
important

62. (1) The Bank may designate a bank or financial institution as systemically important based on the systemic significance of the bank or financial institution.

(2) The Bank shall determine the designation of a bank or financial institution as systemically important under subsection (1).

Systemically
important
capital
buffer

63. (1) The Bank may direct a bank or financial institution designated as systemically important under section 62 to maintain a systemically important capital buffer as the Bank may determine.

(2) The systemically important capital buffer referred to under subsection (1) shall be in form of common equity tier one capital as determined by the Bank.

64. (1) A bank or financial institution that has declared a dividend shall not pay that dividend without the prior written approval of the Bank.

Prohibition of payment of dividend by bank or financial institution without approval

(2) A bank or financial institution that contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding ten percent of that financial service provider's annual turnover or five hundred thousand penalty units, whichever is higher.

65. (1) A bank or financial institution that intends to pay a dividend shall apply to the Bank for approval to pay that dividend.

Application for approval to pay dividend by bank or financial institution

(2) The Bank shall, in determining an application referred to under subsection (1), consider the impact on the capital adequacy, capital buffers and the risk profile of the applicant and—

- (a) approve the amount proposed to be paid as a dividend;
- (b) approve a reduced amount of the dividend to be paid; or
- (c) reject the application and inform the applicant, in writing, stating the reasons for the rejection.

66. Despite the Companies Act, capital distribution constraints as the Bank may determine shall apply where a bank or financial institution intends to declare and make a capital distribution that results in the failure of the bank or financial institution to provide for, or maintain, the determined capital buffers.

Capital distribution constraints
Cap. 388

67. (1) A bank or financial institution shall maintain a leverage ratio as determined by the Bank.

Leverage ratio

(2) Despite subsection (1), the Bank may direct a bank or financial institution to maintain a higher leverage ratio based on systemic risk or the risk profile of the bank or financial institution.

68. The Bank may direct a bank or financial institution to maintain a minimum loan to deposit ratio as determined by the Bank.

Loan to deposit ratio

69. A bank or financial institution shall not grant credit if granting that credit results in the bank or financial institution breaching the loan to value of assets ratio or loan to income ratio determined by the Bank.

Loan to value of assets ratio and loan to income ratio

Revision of risk weights	70. The Bank may adjust risk weights applicable to exposures for a bank or financial institution based on threats and vulnerabilities assessed by the Bank in the financial system.
Liquidity coverage ratio and net stable funding ratio	71. A bank or financial institution shall maintain a liquidity coverage ratio and net stable funding ratio in a manner determined by the Bank.
Maintenance of liquidity	72. (1) A bank or financial institution shall maintain adequate and appropriate forms of liquidity as determined by the Bank. (2) A bank or financial institution shall— (a) hold liquid assets in accordance with the thresholds determined by the Bank; or (b) not increase its outstanding loans, overdrafts or investments where the thresholds referred to under paragraph (a) are breached by the bank or financial institution. (3) The Bank may direct a bank or financial institution to provide information on the bank or financial institution's liquidity position to the Bank. (4) A bank or financial institution that contravenes this section is liable to pay an administrative penalty on the amount of deficiency, at a rate of two or more percentage points above the annual interest rate prevailing in the most recent ninety-one-day treasury bill auction.
Additional liquidity	73. The Bank may direct a bank or financial institution to provide additional liquidity in a manner as may be determined by the Bank.
Constraints on contracts with associated person, insider or related party	74. (1) A bank or financial institution shall not enter into a contract or transaction with an associated person, insider or related party where the contract or transaction— (a) confers an undue benefit on the associated person, insider or related party to the detriment of the bank or financial institution; (b) is not conducted at arm's length or is on terms less favourable to the bank or financial institution than the terms available to an unrelated party under similar circumstances; (c) is not disclosed to, and approved by, a board of the bank or financial institution; (d) is prohibited under any written law, or poses a material risk to the financial soundness, governance, or reputation of the bank or financial institution; (e) is not properly documented or disclosed in accordance with the regulatory or internal governance requirements determined by the Bank; (f) is not in the best interest of the bank or financial institution;

(g) exceeds prudential limits on exposure to insiders, associates or related parties; or

(h) falls within a category of a prohibited related party transaction determined by the Bank.

(2) The Bank shall direct a financial service provider to collateralise or deduct related party exposures from regulatory capital as may be determined by the Bank.

(3) For purposes of this section, a related party transaction means a transaction in which two or more persons, by virtue of association, benefit severally or jointly from funds or services arising from a transaction involving any one of them and a financial service provider and includes—

(a) on-balance sheet and off-balance sheet credit exposures;

(b) dealings such as service contracts;

(c) asset purchases and sales;

(d) construction contracts and lease agreements;

(e) derivative transactions;

(f) borrowings; and

(g) write-offs.

(4) A person who contravenes this section is liable to pay an administrative penalty not exceeding one million penalty units.

75. (1) A bank or financial institution shall submit to the Bank, in the form and within a period determined by the Bank—

Submission
of information
and returns

(a) a statement showing assets and liabilities as at the close of the last business day of each month;

(b) a statement showing income and expenditure;

(c) the amount of the regulatory capital and reserve funds;

(d) the amount of the bank or financial institution's liabilities to the public relative to the amount of the bank or financial institution's regulatory capital and reserve funds referred to under paragraph (b);

(e) a statement, as the Bank may determine, showing performing loans, non-performing loans and restructured loans, including the terms of the restructuring; and

(f) other statements or information relating to the bank or financial institution's operations, financial condition and resources as may be determined by the Bank.

(2) The Bank may direct a financial business to provide periodic reports showing information on the operations, financial condition and resources of the financial business as the Bank may determine.

(3) The Bank may direct a financial service provider to develop and submit a recovery plan, in a manner and form as determined by the Bank, for purposes of demonstrating measures which the financial service provider shall take in the event of distress.

Consolidated
supervision

Cap. 384

Cap. 128

76. (1) The Bank shall, for purposes of the safety and soundness of a financial service provider, interest of depositors or to determine whether this Act, the Financial Intelligence Centre Act or the Anti-Terrorism and Non-Proliferation Act are being complied with, direct, in writing, an affiliate, associate, holding company or subsidiary or a person that controls the financial service provider, to submit to the Bank or the Bank's agent information or documents as may be necessary, including financial statements and other financial records of that affiliate, associate, holding company or subsidiary or person in control, within a period specified in the direction.

(2) The Bank shall, for the purposes of conducting consolidated supervision under this Act, direct, in writing, an affiliate, associate, holding company or subsidiary or a person who controls a financial service provider, to provide the Bank or the Bank's agent information or documents as may be necessary, including financial statements and other financial records of that affiliate, associate, holding company or subsidiary or person in control within a period specified in the direction.

(3) The Bank may appoint a suitably qualified person, at the cost of a financial service provider, to conduct an examination of the operations and affairs of an affiliate, associate, holding company or subsidiary or a person who controls a financial service provider, for purposes of determining whether the operations and affairs of the affiliate, associate, holding company, subsidiary or person in control constitute unsafe and unsound practice or are detrimental to the safety and soundness of the financial service provider.

(4) The Bank may, by regulatory statement, specify processes and procedures for consolidated supervision under this Act.

(5) A person who fails, refuses, omits or neglects to submit information referred to under subsection (1) or (2), commits an offence and is liable to pay an administrative penalty not exceeding two hundred thousand penalty units for each day that the contravention continues.

Affiliates and cross border
supervision
and resolution

77. (1) The Bank may exercise the Bank's supervisory authority over an affiliate of a financial service provider where the Bank determines that it is necessary to—

- (a) implement supervision on a consolidated basis; or
- (b) effectively supervise the financial service provider.

(2) The Bank may, for purposes of ensuring effective supervision, crisis management and resolution of a financial service provider that is part of a banking group or has cross border operations, enter into an arrangement for sharing information, on a reciprocal basis, with both domestic and foreign competent authorities.

(3) The information referred to under subsection (2) shall be kept confidential.

(4) An arrangement for sharing information referred to under subsection (2) shall include sharing of information on anti-money laundering, countering of terrorism financing and proliferation financing.

(5) The Bank may establish a crisis management group for purposes of coordination with relevant institutions on matters relating to crisis management and resolution.

78. (1) The Bank may determine an act or conduct that constitutes unsafe and unsound practice under this Act.

Unsafe and unsound practice

(2) The Bank may, where the Bank considers that a financial service provider is committing an act or conduct that is unsafe and unsound, direct the financial service provider or its board to establish—

- (a) a plan of action to counteract the unsafe and unsound practice within a period that the Bank may determine; and
- (b) or maintain safe and sound practices in the conduct of the business of the financial service provider within a period that the Bank may determine.

(3) The Bank may apply any of the supervisory actions referred to under section 79 where a financial service provider fails or neglects to establish a plan referred to under subsection (2) (a).

- (4) A direction given by the Bank under this section—
 - (a) shall be given by notice, in writing, to the financial service provider or any other person as the Bank may determine;
 - (b) shall take effect immediately and remain in effect in accordance with the terms and conditions of the direction unless discontinued on appeal; and

(c) may be varied or revoked, by notice, in writing, to the financial service provider or any other person.

(5) A person who contravenes this section commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding seven hundred thousand penalty units or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding seven years, or to both.

Supervisory action

79. (1) The Bank shall take supervisory action against a financial service provider where—

(a) the financial service provider fails to comply with this Act, a rule or regulatory statement issued under this Act or any other relevant written law;

(b) the Bank determines that a financial service provider is committing an act or a conduct that is an unsafe or unsound practice;

(c) the financial service provider refuses to permit an examination or obstructs an examination from being conducted in accordance with this Act;

(d) the Bank determines that a bank or financial institution is a distressed institution; or

(e) an examination conducted in accordance with this Act shows that the financial service provider conducts a banking business or provides a financial service in contravention of a relevant written law.

(2) In addition to any other action that the Bank may take under this Act, supervisory action that the Bank may take under subsection (1) includes—

(a) directing, in writing, a financial service provider to take remedial action to comply with a regulatory statement issued in accordance with this Act;

(b) directing a board or senior officer to execute an agreement for purposes of complying with a regulatory statement issued in accordance with paragraph (a);

(c) conducting, or appointing an agent to conduct, an examination of a financial service provider to determine the financial condition of the financial service provider at the cost of the financial service provider;

(d) issuing a cease-and-desist order, of temporary or indefinite duration, directing the financial service provider and its board to—

- (i) stop an unsafe and unsound practice;
 - (ii) limit a financial service provider's lending or borrowing;
 - (iii) stop a declaration or payment of dividends; or
 - (iv) stop any other activity of a financial service provider as the Bank may determine;
- (e) directing a financial service provider to—
- (i) refrain from adopting or pursuing a specific course of action;
 - (ii) restrict the scope of the business of the financial service provider in a particular manner; or
 - (iii) refrain from entering into a transaction or class of transactions;
- (f) imposing a limitation on soliciting, acceptance of deposits, payment of interest on deposits, granting of credit, making of investments or declaration and payment of dividends;
- (g) directing the suspension or removal from office of a director, senior officer or any other employee of a financial service provider;
- (h) appointing, at the cost of a financial service provider, a person who, in the consideration of the Bank, is suitably qualified and competent to advise and assist the financial service provider, generally or for the purposes of complying with a direction or regulatory statement issued under this Act;
- (i) appointing, at the cost of a financial service provider, a person who, in the consideration of the Bank, is suitably qualified and competent to manage the affairs of the financial service provider for a period that the Bank may determine;
- (j) directing a person referred to in paragraphs (h) and (i) to report to the Bank during intervals as the Bank may direct;
- (k) imposing an administrative penalty on a financial service provider, a director or senior officer of the financial service provider, as the Bank may consider appropriate under the circumstances;

- (l) increasing supervisory intensity as the Bank may determine;
- (m) directing a financial service provider to reconstitute its board within a period that the Bank may specify;
- (n) directing a board or senior officer to provide a written explanation stating the causes of any adverse position and the measures to be taken by the financial service provider to rectify, or avert recurrence of, the adverse position;
- (o) ordering the financial service provider to submit to the Bank, within thirty days of the order, a capital restoration plan to restore the financial service provider to determined capital adequacy levels;
- (p) in the case where a financial service provider is under-capitalised, directing that financial service provider to increase its capital to determined levels within ninety days of submission of the capital restoration plan referred to under paragraph (o);
- (q) prohibiting a financial service provider from awarding bonuses or increments in the salaries, emoluments or other benefits to directors and senior officers of the financial service provider;
- (r) prohibiting capital expenditure without prior approval of the Bank;
- (s) restricting or varying the financial service provider's licence; or
- (t) suspending or cancelling the financial service provider's licence.

(3) A direction given to a financial service provider or person under this section shall be in writing and may be varied or revoked.

(4) The Bank shall, in writing, inform the Minister of the state of affairs of a systemically significant bank or financial institution in respect of which the Bank has taken supervisory action in accordance with this section.

PART VIII

RESTRICTIONS ON TRANSACTIONS OF FINANCIAL SERVICE PROVIDERS

80. (1) A bank or financial institution shall not— Secured borrowing

(a) create, grant or permit a mortgage, charge, lien or other form of security interest over its assets, except where the mortgage, charge, lien or other security interest is created, granted or permitted in —

(i) the ordinary course of business of the bank or financial institution and is expressly subordinated to the claims of depositors in the event of resolution or insolvency; or

(3) A bank or financial institution that contravenes subsections (1) or (2) is liable to pay an administrative penalty not exceeding one million penalty units.

Restriction
on trade

82. A financial service provider shall not, directly or indirectly, without the prior written approval of the Bank and on terms and conditions as the Bank may determine, engage in a trade or business for which the financial service provider is not licensed, except where the financial service provider is engaging in the trade or conducting the business necessary for a period not exceeding twelve months or a longer period as the Bank may determine, for purposes of securing a debt due to the financial service provider.

Restriction
on equity investments

83. (1) A bank or financial institution shall not, directly or indirectly, without the prior written approval of the Bank and on terms and conditions as the Bank may determine, acquire, or invest in, equity in a commercial, agricultural, industrial or other business undertaking, except where the acquisition or investment is necessary for securing or satisfying a debt or other liability payable to the bank or financial institution.

(2) The Bank shall determine the criteria for evaluating proposals on the acquisitions and investments referred to in subsection (1).

(3) A bank or financial institution that acquires equity under subsection (1) shall dispose the equity within a period of two years.

(4) Despite subsection (3), the Bank may, on application, in writing, by a bank or financial institution, extend the period specified under subsection (3).

(5) The Bank may impose prudential conditions on a bank or financial institution referred to under subsection (1).

(6) A bank or financial institution shall not—

(a) invest in an equity interest in a person, property or undertaking in an amount exceeding fifteen percent of the total of all equity interests in the person, property or undertaking;

(b) acquire an equity interest in a person, property or undertaking where the value of the bank or financial institution's equity exceeds fifteen percent of its primary capital; or

(c) acquire an equity interest in a person, property or undertaking in which a related party has an interest that exceeds ten percent of the bank or financial institution's primary capital.

(7) A bank or financial institution shall notify the Bank where the bank or financial institution acquires, or invests in, equity interest which is less than the thresholds specified under subsection (6).

(8) Where a bank or financial institution invests in equity interest of a person, property or undertaking, the aggregate of the investments shall not exceed fifteen percent of the bank or financial institution's primary capital.

(9) A bank or financial institution that acquires or invests in equity interest of the bank or financial institution's subsidiary or proposed subsidiary shall not require approval of the Bank where the—

- (a) equity interest in the subsidiary or proposed subsidiary is less than fifty-one percent of the total equity interest in the subsidiary or proposed subsidiary; or
- (b) aggregate of the acquisition or investment by the bank or financial institution is less than fifteen percent of its primary capital.

(10) Despite subsection (9)(a), the Bank may approve the holding of more than fifty-one percent equity interest in a subsidiary on terms and conditions as the Bank may determine.

(11) Subsection (6)(a) does not apply where a bank or financial institution—

- (a) acquires equity interest for purposes of realising any part of collateral in a credit transaction; and
- (b) disposes of equity interest, in excess of the limits specified under this section, within two years following the acquisition or a longer period as the Bank may determine.

Termination of appointment of external auditor by financial service provider

(2) An external auditor may, within ten days of receiving the statement referred to in subsection (1), submit to the Bank and the financial service provider a written statement responding to the reasons stated by the financial service provider.

PART X

FINANCIAL CONSUMER PROTECTION AND MARKET CONDUCT

Regulation
supervision on financial consumer protection and market conduct

102. The Bank shall regulate and supervise financial service providers on matters relating to financial consumer protection and market conduct.

Anti-competitive
practices
Cap. 417

103. Subject to the Competition and Consumer Protection Act, and for purposes of this Part, a financial service provider that enters into an agreement, makes a decision or engages in a concerted practice which has an objective or effect of preventing, restricting or distorting competition to an appreciable extent shall be considered to have engaged in anti-competitive practices.

Prohibition of anti-competitive
practices

104. (1) A financial service provider shall not engage in the following anti-competitive practices:

- (a) engage in an unfair or deceptive act or practice;

A financial service provider shall not provide for a contract term or condition or engage in conduct that imposes barriers for a consumer to switch from that financial service provider or banking service or financial service to another financial service provider or banking service or financial service.

Fair treatment of consumers and charter

109. (1) The Bank may determine minimum standards and practices for fair treatment of consumers in the provision of banking and financial services.

(2) A financial service provider shall develop a charter for fair treatment of consumers and avail a copy to a consumer.

Disclosure of interest rates and charges

110. (1) A financial service provider shall, at the time of opening an account for a consumer, disclose as the Bank may determine, to the consumer, information relating to interest and charges.

(2) A financial service provider that grants credit to a consumer shall, before granting the credit, disclose as the Bank may determine, the cost of the credit to the consumer.

(3) The Bank may determine the manner and form, and content of information, required to be disclosed by a financial service provider under this section.

Prohibition of introducing new charge or increasing existing charge for consumers

111. (1) A financial service provider shall not introduce a new charge or increase an existing charge for consumers, without the prior written approval of the Bank.

(2) A financial service provider that contravenes subsection (1) is liable to pay an administrative penalty not exceeding five hundred thousand penalty units.

Application for introducing new charge or increasing existing charge for consumers

112. (1) A financial service provider that intends to introduce a new charge or increase an existing charge for consumers shall apply to the Bank for approval in a manner and form determined by the Bank.

(2) The Bank shall, within fourteen days of receipt of an application under subsection (1), approve or reject the application.

(3) The Bank shall, where a financial service provider meets the requirements for approval as may be determined, grant approval to the financial service provider to introduce a new charge or increase an existing charge for consumers.

(4) The Bank shall, where the Bank rejects an application under subsection (2), inform the applicant, in writing, stating the reasons for the rejection.

- 113. (1) The Bank may direct a financial service provider to publish the financial service provider’s fees, rates and terms and conditions relating to the provision of a banking service or financial service. Publication of fees, rates, terms and conditions
- (2) The Bank may publish the fees, rates and terms and conditions referred to under subsection (1).
- 114. (1) A financial service provider shall ensure that— Responsible finance
- (a) a banking service or financial service provided by the financial service provider meets the needs of a consumer of the banking service or financial service of that financial service provider;
 - (b) the consumer understands the implications of accessing a banking service or financial service of that financial service provider;
 - (c) the consumer is accorded an opportunity to make an independent assessment of the implications referred to under paragraph (b); and
 - (d) the consumer has the capacity to meet obligations that arise from accessing a banking service or financial service of that financial service provider.
- (2) A financial service provider referred to under subsection (1) shall develop a criteria for responsible finance.
- (3) The criteria referred to under subsection (2) shall have written procedures for—
- (a) determining whether a particular banking service or financial service is suitable and affordable for a consumer of the financial service provider;
 - (b) determining whether the banking service or financial service allows a consumer to meet the consumer’s obligations with a low probability of over-indebtedness or hardship; and
 - (c) assessing whether there is a prospect that the banking service or financial service shall provide value to the consumer.
- (4) A financial service provider that contravenes this section commits an offence and is liable to pay an administrative penalty not exceeding four hundred thousand penalty units.
- 115. (1) A financial service provider shall provide a consumer the right to terminate, by notice in writing, a contract relating to the provision of a banking service or financial service within a reasonable period after the date on which the contract is executed or a period determined by the Bank. Right to rescind contract

(2) Where a contract is terminated under this section, a financial service provider shall refund the consumer, within a reasonable time after the delivery of the notice referred to under subsection (1), the money which that consumer paid under the contract and the financial service provider—

(a) shall cancel any automatic payment plans and give notice of termination to a credit reporting system; and

(b) may only require payment from the consumer of a fee for purposes of compensating the financial service provider for any costs incurred.

Unfair
contract or unfair
contract
term

116. (1) For the purposes of this section, a contract or contract term is unfair if—

(a) the contract or contract term has not been individually negotiated by a consumer; and

(b) contrary to good faith, the contract or contract term causes a significant imbalance in the rights and obligations of a consumer and a financial service provider, to the detriment of the consumer.

(2) An unfair term in a contract between a financial service provider and a consumer shall not be binding on the consumer.

(3) A contract term for a banking service or financial service shall not be lawful or enforceable if the contract term deprives a consumer—

(a) of a right to claim against the financial service provider;

(b) from receiving information relating to a banking service or financial service accessed by that consumer;

(c) of the right to have a complaint lodged by the consumer with a financial service provider to be resolved by that financial service provider;

(d) of the right to have information relating to the consumer to be kept confidential by a financial service provider, except as otherwise provided in this Act; or

(e) from cancelling the use of a banking service or financial service.

Prepayment of credit
transactions

117. (1) A borrower may, prior to the expiry of a credit repayment period, pre-pay the credit facility in whole or in part without charge, if the —

(a) financial service provider shall only recover pro-rated costs incurred on the credit facility;

(b) Bank determines that a credit transaction is eligible for pre-payment; and

(c) credit facility is not secured by a mortgage.

(2) A financial service provider that contravenes subsection (1) is liable to pay an administrative penalty not exceeding five hundred thousand penalty units.

118. (1) A financial service provider shall not impose, on a borrower, a charge or penalty which arises from the borrower's failure to repay a credit facility in accordance with the contract governing the loan, except —

Prohibition
against penal interest

(a) interest on an overdue payment on the credit facility;

(b) legal costs incurred by the financial service provider in collecting, or attempting to collect, a payment on the credit facility; or

(c) costs incurred in protecting or realising the security on the credit facility.

(2) A financial service provider that contravenes subsection (1) is liable to an administrative penalty not exceeding five hundred thousand penalty units.

(3) In addition to the penalty specified under subsection (2), the Bank may direct a financial service provider to—

(a) reimburse any interest paid by the borrower in contravention of this section; or

(b) account and disgorge profits obtained, or losses avoided by the financial service provider, as a result of a contravention of this section.

119. (1) A financial service provider shall recover the following amounts from a borrower on a non-performing credit facility:

Recoverable amounts on non-performing loan

(a) the outstanding principal amount of the credit facility at the time the credit facility becomes non-performing;

(b) any interest in arrears due to the financial service provider in accordance with a credit facility agreement if the interest does not exceed the principal amount referred to in paragraph (a); and

(c) expenses incurred by the financial service provider in the recovery of amounts owed by the borrower.

(2) This section does not apply to interest awarded by a court and accruing after the award by the court.

Disclosure
of
information

120. (1) A financial service provider shall, where the financial service provider discloses information, to the public, relating to a banking service or financial service provided by that financial service provider —

- (a) use clear, concise and simple language;
- (b) adjust the method or manner of disclosure of the information to meet specific needs of consumers;
- (c) provide true, accurate and relevant information;
- (d) provide a key fact statement as the Bank may determine; and
- (e) make disclosures in a consistent manner to facilitate comparison between similar banking services or financial services.

(2) A financial service provider shall, prior to providing a banking service or financial service to a consumer, disclose, in writing, the cost of the banking service or financial service to the consumer.

(3) A bank or financial institution shall, at the time of opening an account for a consumer, provide a consumer with a written statement of the—

- (a) charges for maintaining and accessing funds on the account;
- (b) interest, if any, to be paid to the consumer by the bank or financial institution; and
- (c) manner in which the bank or financial institution shall inform the consumer of any changes in charges or interest.

(4) A financial service provider shall take necessary steps to ensure that a consumer is made aware of, and understands, the grounds for denial of a banking service or financial service.

Control of
advertisements

121. (1) The Bank may issue a regulatory statement relating to the publication, form and content of advertisements by a financial service provider.

(2) A regulatory statement referred to under subsection (1) may—

- (a) prohibit the publication of an advertisement of any description, whether by reference to the contents of the advertisement or to the persons by whom the advertisement is published;
- (b) provide for matters to be, or not to be, included in an advertisement;

(c) provide for exemptions from provisions under this Act;
and

(d) provide for offences and penalties for breach of a requirement under the regulatory statement.

(3) The Bank may give directions, as the Bank considers necessary, to a financial service provider who has published or caused to be published an advertisement that the Bank reasonably believes—

(a) does not comply with a requirement under a regulatory statement made under this section; or

(b) is false or misleading.

(4) A direction referred to under subsection (3), may require—

(a) a person to modify an advertisement in whole, or in, part;
or

(b) the publication of an advertisement to cease.

(5) This section shall not affect any remedies available to a person who has been aggrieved by a financial service provider who published or caused to be published an advertisement in contravention of a regulatory statement issued by the Bank under this section.

(6) A person who contravenes this section is liable to pay an administrative penalty not exceeding two hundred thousand penalty units.

122. Subject to the Data Protection Act, 2021, and the Financial Intelligence Centre Act, a financial service provider shall maintain the confidentiality of information obtained in the provision of a financial service to a consumer and shall not disclose any information except—

(a) with the express consent of a consumer;

(b) in compliance with a court order;

(c) where disclosure of the information is in the interest of the financial service provider;

(d) where the information requested is consumer identification data required by another financial service provider for the purposes of conducting due diligence;

(e) in accordance with any other written law; or

(f) where the Bank, in the performance of the Bank's functions as provided in this Act, requests or directs.

manager

135. The Bank shall, where the Bank places a bank or financial institution in resolution under section 132, appoint a resolution manager who shall manage the resolution as the Bank may determine.

Petition to Minister to constitute Tribunal

136. A bank or financial institution or an interested person acting on behalf of the bank or financial institution in resolution may, within twenty-one days after the date on which the Bank places the bank or financial institution in resolution, petition the Minister to constitute a tribunal in accordance with Part XV to inquire into the decision of the Bank to place that bank or financial institution in resolution.

Powers and duties of Bank on resolution

137. (1) The Bank shall, on placing a bank or financial institution in resolution, be vested with full and exclusive powers of management and control of the bank or financial institution and have the power to—

- (a) suspend or terminate the interest of a shareholder of the bank or financial institution and refer the determination of the value of the interest of the shareholder to a court;
- (b) dissolve a board of the bank or financial institution;
- (c) continue or discontinue operations of the bank or financial institution;
- (d) borrow money and use the assets of the bank or financial institution as security;
- (e) suspend the payment of any of the bank or financial institution's obligations, including interest;
- (f) execute an instrument or agreement or commence an action or legal proceeding in the name of the bank or financial institution;

- (g) direct a director, senior officer or shareholder of the bank or financial institution to pay any liability incurred in the ordinary course of business or on unpaid shares of the bank or financial institution;
- (h) employ, retain, reinstate or terminate the employment of a senior officer or any other employee or professional advisor of the bank or financial institution; and
- (i) take any other appropriate action as the Bank may determine.

(2) The Bank may, where the Bank terminates the employment of an employee, other than a senior officer, under subsection (1)(h), pay from funds of the failed institution, three months wages in lieu of notice.

(3) The Bank may suspend for a period that the Bank may determine, the exercise of an early termination right by a party to a contract with a bank or financial institution in resolution subject to the following:

- (a) the suspension of the exercise of the early termination right shall only apply where the early termination right arises as a result of the Bank placing the bank or financial institution in resolution;
- (b) an early termination right of a party to a contract with a bank or financial institution shall not be affected where a default occurs—
 - (i) before the Bank suspends the early termination right and is not related to the exercise of a resolution power by the Bank; or
 - (ii) after the period of the suspension lapses and is not related to the exercise of a resolution power by the Bank;
- (c) the suspension referred to under paragraph (a) shall be effective for a period that the Bank may determine at the time of the suspension;
- (d) in the case where the contract is an eligible contract, the Bank shall transfer the eligible contract with a particular party, to another entity, without selecting to transfer individual contracts with that party and subject to the same netting agreement;
- (e) the entity referred to under paragraph (d) shall assume the rights and obligations of the bank or financial institution in resolution from which the eligible contract was transferred;

- (f) the early termination right of the party shall not be affected in the case of a subsequent default by the entity referred to under paragraph (d), following the transfer of an eligible contract to the entity;
- (g) the party may exercise the right to close-out immediately against the bank or financial institution in resolution when the period of the suspension lapses or where the Bank informs the party that the contract shall not be transferred; and
- (h) where the period of suspension lapses, a party may exercise an early termination right for a contract that is not transferred by the Bank to an entity referred to under paragraph (d).

Statement of affairs

138. The Bank shall prepare a statement of affairs as the Bank may determine for a bank or financial institution in resolution.

Resolution
options

139. (1) The Bank shall take any of the following resolution options for a bank or financial institution in resolution:

- (a) restructure or re-organise the bank or financial institution;
- (b) sell the bank or financial institution;
- (c) wind-up the bank or financial institution;
- (d) transfer all, or part, of the business of the bank or financial institution to a bridge institution;
- (e) initiate a purchase and assumption transaction;
- (f) initiate a bail-in;
- (g) dispose of all, or some, of the assets of the bank or financial institution; or
- (h) take any action that the Bank considers necessary.

(2) The Bank may, where necessary, establish a special purpose vehicle to facilitate the implementation of the resolution options referred to under subsection (1).

(3) Where the Bank winds-up a bank or financial institution under subsection (1)(c), the winding-up of the bank or financial institution shall take effect by the Bank placing that bank or financial institution under liquidation.

(4) Subject to any other relevant written law and for purposes of facilitating a resolution of a bank or financial institution, a relevant authority responsible for deposit insurance may fund a resolution option involving the transfer of deposits held by the bank or financial institution.

(5) Despite any other relevant written law, the Bank shall not be required to notify or obtain the approval of creditors, shareholders or other parties before implementing a resolution option.

140. The Bank may, where the Bank commences a restructuring or reorganisation of a bank or financial institution under section 139(1)(a), manage or appoint an agent to manage the restructuring or reorganisation of the bank or financial institution.

Restructuring
reorganisation

141. (1) The Bank may establish, as a resolution option under section 139(1)(d), a bridge institution which shall be owned by the Government for the purposes of transferring all, or part, of the business of a bank or financial institution in resolution.

Establishment and winding-up of bridge
institution

(2) A bridge institution referred to under subsection (1) shall be temporary and controlled by the Bank as the resolution authority under this Act.

(3) The Bank may, where the Bank controls a bridge institution under subsection (2)—

- (a) sell the bridge institution to a third party; or
- (b) wind-up the bridge institution where all, or substantially all, of the bridge institution's assets, rights and liabilities are transferred by the Bank to a third party.

(4) The Bank may exempt a bridge institution from requirements under this Act.

142. The Bank may, for the purposes of effecting a bail-in as a resolution option under section 139(1)(f), without consent—

Bail-in

- (a) write-down, in whole or in part, in accordance with section 163 to the extent necessary to absorb incurred or anticipated losses—
 - (i) equity instruments or other instruments of ownership issued by a bank or financial institution in resolution; or
 - (ii) creditor claims of a bank or financial institution in resolution;
- (b) convert, in whole or in part, into equity or other instruments of ownership in accordance with section 163, creditor claims of a bank or financial institution in resolution; or
- (c) convert or write-down a contingent convertible instrument or contractual bail-in instrument which conversion or write-down provisions—
 - (i) have not been triggered prior to the commencement of resolution; and

- (ii) treat the resulting instruments of the conversion or write-down in accordance with paragraph (a) or (b).

Back-stop funding for resolution

143. (1) The Government may, on the recommendation of the Bank, provide back-stop funding for the resolution of a bank or financial institution in resolution for the preservation of financial system stability.

(2) The back-stop funding provided under subsection (1) shall be recoverable from—

(a) the sale of the assets of a bank or financial institution in liquidation following a resolution; or

(b) ex-post levies as the Bank may determine, in consultation with the Minister, on a bank or financial institution.

(3) Back-stop funding shall only be provided where shareholders and subordinated debt holders of a failed institution have absorbed the losses of the failed institution.

Creditor
safeguards

144. (1) The Bank shall consider a claim of a creditor or shareholder of a bank or financial institution after the Bank applies losses in accordance with the loss bearing hierarchy when effecting a resolution option.

(2) The Bank shall treat a claim of a creditor or shareholder of a bank or financial institution equally as the creditor or shareholder would be treated in a liquidation.

(3) Despite subsection (2), the Bank may treat a claim of a creditor or shareholder of a bank or financial institution differently where the Bank considers it necessary to effect an orderly resolution of the bank or financial institution in resolution.

(4) The Bank shall take steps to determine that a creditor does not incur greater losses than the creditor would have incurred if the bank or financial institution had been placed in liquidation.

(5) The Bank may obtain an independent valuation for purposes of determining the losses referred to under subsection (4).

(6) Where the Bank determines under subsection (4) that a creditor has received less than the creditor would have received in liquidation, the creditor shall be entitled to recover the shortfall which shall form a claim in the liquidation of the residual assets of the bank or financial institution.

(7) Where the Bank effects a resolution option under subsection (1), a resolution option taken by the Bank shall not be rendered invalid or unlawful only on the ground that the action of the Bank to effect a resolution option results in a reduction in the value of a claim of a creditor of a bank or financial institution in resolution.

- 145. (1) The Bank shall determine whether an impediment exists in effecting the orderly resolution of a bank or financial institution prior to the Bank placing the bank or financial institution in resolution. Impediments in orderly resolution of bank or financial institution
- (2) Where the Bank determines that an impediment exists to the orderly resolution under subsection (1), the Bank may direct the bank or financial institution to take specific measures to remove the impediment within a period specified by the Bank.
- 146. (1) Where the Bank places a bank or financial institution in resolution under this Act— Effects of resolution
- (a) a term relating to the expiration of a claim or right of the bank or financial institution shall be extended by six months or a longer period as the Bank may determine from the date of that expiration despite the provisions of any other relevant written law relating to extension of time;
- (b) the Bank may net-off the deposits of a customer of the bank or financial institution who is indebted to that bank or financial institution or has an outstanding credit facility in accordance with criteria determined by the Bank;
- (c) an attachment or lien, except for an attachment or lien in existence eighteen months prior to the Bank placing the bank or financial institution, shall be vacated;
- (d) an attachment or lien shall not attach to an asset of the bank or financial institution during the period that the resolution continues, except where that attachment or lien is created—
- (i) by the Bank as lender of last resort; or
- (ii) in favour of a payment system, settlement system or settlement in netting or gross settlement arrangement;
- (e) a payment or transfer of an asset of the bank or financial institution made with an intention to effect a preference of a recipient of the payment or transfer of an asset over the other creditors of a bank or financial institution or at less than the appraised book value, shall be void, if made within a period of twelve months or a longer period as may be determined by the Bank, prior to the Bank placing the bank or financial institution in resolution;

- (f) a gratuitous transfer of an asset of the bank or financial institution made within twelve months or a longer period as may be determined by the Bank, prior to the Bank placing the bank or financial institution in resolution shall be void and the asset shall be surrendered to the Bank; and
- (g) any lending to a director, senior officer, or other employee of the bank or financial institution, or an associated person of that director, senior officer, or other employee of the bank or financial institution on preferential terms, or without adequate security, made within six months or a longer period as may be determined by the Bank, prior to the Bank placing the bank or financial institution in resolution shall be cancelled and that director, senior officer or other employee of the bank or financial institution or associated person shall immediately repay the money advanced and interest accrued on the lending, at the prevailing rate at the time of resolution, to the bank or financial institution.
- (2) Despite subsection (1)(e), a payment or transfer of an asset of a bank or financial institution in resolution shall not be void where the—
- (a) payment or transfer is made to a creditor in the ordinary course of business to discharge in whole, or in part, a debt or other liability of the bank or financial institution to that creditor; or
- (b) transfer of an asset in exchange for consideration which is equal to the fair market value of the asset transferred.
- (3) A deposit which is subject to restriction, seizure, a freezing notice or garnishee order shall continue to be subject to the restriction, seizure, freezing notice or garnishee order until the restriction, seizure, freezing notice or garnishee order is removed or lifted by a relevant authority or on expiry.

Restriction
on execution of judgment against assets of bank or financial institution in resolution

147. (1) A writ of execution, attachment, garnishee order or other similar process shall not be issued or made by a creditor against the assets of a bank or financial institution in resolution.

(2) A creditor referred to under subsection (1) shall not be entitled to retain the benefit of the execution, attachment or similar process, unless the creditor completed the execution, attachment or similar process, at least eighteen months prior to the Bank placing a bank or financial institution in resolution.

148. The Bank may recover the necessary and reasonable expenses, costs and charges incurred by the Bank in the application of this Part from the funds of a bank or financial institution in resolution. Recovery of expenses

PART XII
INSOLVENCY, DISSOLUTION AND LIQUIDATION OF FINANCIAL SERVICE PROVIDERS

149. (1) The Bank may place a bank or financial institution under liquidation where a— Grounds for liquidation

- (a) bank or financial institution has been determined by the Bank to be no longer viable and has no prospects of recovery;
- (b) bank or financial institution is not systemically important, and the bank or financial institution's failure would not give rise to a material risk to financial stability, the continuity of critical financial market infrastructures, or public confidence in the financial system;
- (c) bank or financial institution's business model, operational structure, or financial condition renders the bank or financial institution unsuitable for resolution under this Act, and liquidation is considered to be the most appropriate method to protect depositors and creditors;
- (d) bank or financial institution's licence has been cancelled by the Bank in accordance with this Act;
- (e) bank or financial institution has been placed in resolution, and the Bank determines that-
 - (i) the resolution options under this Act are not sufficient to bring the bank or financial institution to recovery;
 - (ii) recapitalisation is not practical; and
 - (iii) the continued operation of the bank or financial institution would result in further erosion of value of the bank or financial institution or increased systemic risk.

(2) The Bank shall, in exercising the Bank's functions in relation to liquidation of a bank or financial institution under this Act—

- (a) conduct the liquidation in a timely and orderly manner;
- (b) preserve the value of the assets of the bank or financial institution, so far as is reasonably practicable;
- (c) protect depositors of the bank or financial institution;

(d) safeguard the assets of the bank or financial institution's customers; and

(e) minimise disruption to the stability and effective operation of the financial system.

(3) Despite any other relevant written law, the initiation of liquidation proceedings against a banking group or holding company domiciled outside the Republic shall not be considered as a sufficient ground for the commencement of liquidation proceedings against a bank or financial institution belonging to that banking group, a subsidiary of that holding company, an associate or affiliate of the banking group or holding company which is licensed in the Republic.

(4) Subject to any other relevant written law, the Bank shall inform the relevant authority responsible for deposit insurance where the Bank places a bank or financial institution in liquidation under this section.

Restrictions
of bank or financial institution
Cap. 431

150. (1) Despite the Corporate Insolvency Act, or any other relevant written law, a bank or financial institution referred to under section 149 shall not —

(a) receive deposits;

(b) enter into a new contract; or

(c) continue to conduct a banking business or provide a financial service, except to the extent necessary or incidental to the orderly realisation, conservation and preservation of the assets of the bank or financial institution.

(2) A transaction with a depositor or a creditor and a settlement in a netting or gross settlement arrangement in accordance with a settlement system approved by the Bank, or provided for in any other relevant written law, shall not be proscribed under subsection (1) if the transaction or settlement took place prior to—

(a) a resolution by a board to liquidate the bank or financial institution; or

(b) the appointment of a liquidator or the placing into resolution of the bank or financial institution by the Bank.

(3) A director, senior officer or an employee of a bank or financial institution who has knowledge or, in the performance of the director, senior officer or employee's functions, is reasonably expected to have knowledge, of the insolvency of the bank or financial institution and who causes or permits any act to be done contrary to this section, commits an offence and is liable, to pay an administrative penalty not exceeding five hundred thousand penalty units.

151. Despite the Corporate Insolvency Act, or any other relevant written law, a person shall not commence insolvency proceedings against a bank or financial institution, except where the insolvency proceedings are commenced by a bank or financial institution in accordance with this Part.

Restriction of action by third parties
Cap. 431

152. (1) Despite the Corporate Insolvency Act, or any other relevant written law, a financial service provider that intends to voluntarily wind-up shall seek prior written approval of the Bank.

Resolution to voluntarily wind-up financial service provider
Cap. 431

(2) A financial service provider referred to under subsection (1), shall submit to the Bank—

(a) a certified copy of the board resolution to voluntarily wind-up; and

(b) an audited declaration of solvency by the directors, with a statement of affairs attached, of the financial service provider showing the—

(i) assets and total amount expected to be realised from the assets on winding-up;

(ii) liabilities of the financial service provider; and

(iii) expenses of the winding-up of the financial service provider, estimated up to the latest practicable date prior to the passing of a board resolution for voluntary winding-up.

(3) The Bank shall, on terms and conditions that the Bank may determine, approve an intention for voluntary winding-up of a financial service provider referred to under subsection (1) if the Bank is satisfied that the financial service provider is solvent and has sufficient liquid assets to settle the obligations of that financial service provider.

(4) The Bank shall, where the Bank approves an intention for voluntary winding-up under subsection (3), inform a financial service provider, in writing, of the decision.

(5) A board shall, on receipt of a decision made under subsection (4), pass a resolution for voluntary winding-up of a financial service provider in accordance with the Companies Act, and record the date, hour and minute of the passing of the resolution.

Cap. 388

(6) A person who contravenes this section, commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding five hundred thousand penalty units or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years, or to both.

Duties of financial service provider on voluntary winding-up	153. Where a financial service provider receives approval from the Bank for voluntary winding-up under section 152, the financial service provider shall— (a) surrender the licence of the financial service provider to the Bank, within seven days of receipt of the approval and— (i) cease to conduct business; and (ii) engage in activities necessary to effect the orderly winding-up of the financial service provider in accordance with the Corporate Insolvency Act, and this Act; and (b) repay in full the depositors and creditors of the financial service provider.
Notice of voluntary winding-up	154. (1) A financial service provider shall, where a financial service provider receives approval for voluntary winding-up under section 152, within fourteen days, notify, in writing, of the winding-up to a— (a) depositor or creditor of the financial service provider of the intended voluntary winding-up; and (b) person entitled to funds or property held by the financial service provider as a trustee, fiduciary, lessor of a safe custody facility or bailee. (2) A notice referred to under subsection (1) shall— (a) contain information as the Bank may determine; (b) be displayed in a conspicuous place in each branch of the financial service provider; and (c) be published in the Gazette and in a daily newspaper of general circulation in the Republic or electronic media as the Bank may determine.
Rights of depositors or creditors to payments, funds and other property	155. (1) An approval by the Bank for the voluntary winding-up of a financial service provider under section 152, shall not prejudice the right of a depositor or creditor to payment in full, or to the return of funds or property held, by that financial service provider. (2) A financial service provider shall pay funds and property referred to under subsection (1) within a period that the Bank may determine.
Distribution of assets on voluntary winding-up Cap. 431	156. (1) Where the Bank considers that a financial service provider has discharged all the obligations specified in this Act, the remainder of a financial service provider's property shall be distributed to the shareholders, in accordance with the Corporate Insolvency Act, and this Act.

(2) A distribution referred to under subsection (1) shall not be made before—

- (a) the claims of depositors or creditors are paid in full;
- (b) in the case of a disputed claim, the financial service provider has reserved sufficient funds to meet any liability that is awaiting determination by a court; and
- (c) uncollected funds payable to a depositor or creditor, have been reserved to be considered as unclaimed funds in accordance with this Act.

157. The Bank may take possession of a financial service provider that is undergoing voluntary winding-up where the Bank determines that the—

- (a) assets of the financial service provider are not sufficient to fully discharge all the obligations of the financial service provider; or
- (b) process of winding-up is delayed.

Powers of Bank where assets are insufficient, or completion unduly delayed

158. (1) Despite the Corporate Insolvency Act or any other relevant written law, the Bank may direct the compulsory winding-up of a financial service provider as a resolution option under section 139 and shall record the date, hour and minute that the direction shall take effect.

Powers of Bank in compulsory winding-up Cap. 431

(2) The Bank shall, within seven days of making a direction in accordance with subsection (1), notify, in writing, a director, shareholder, depositor, creditor and any other interested party of the direction.

(3) A director, shareholder, depositor, creditor and any other interested party notified under subsection (2) may, within thirty days of being notified, file an appeal to a court, against the direction made by the Bank under subsection (1), stating the grounds of the appeal.

159. (1) The Bank shall, in effecting a compulsory winding-up of a financial service provider, have the power to—

- (a) commence, continue or defend an action or legal proceedings in the name and on behalf of the financial service provider; and
- (b) continue the business of the financial service provider only for purposes of winding-up of the financial service provider.

Powers of Bank as liquidator

Cap. 431

(2) Despite the Corporate Insolvency Act, and any other relevant written law, the Bank shall, after a decision to compulsorily wind-up a financial service provider—

(a) take necessary steps to terminate safe custody functions performed by the financial service provider and return to each owner, any assets and property held by the financial service provider as a bailee in relation to the owner;

(b) cause to be made available at each branch of the financial service provider for collection by a depositor, creditor and bailor of—

(i) property held by the financial service provider; and

(ii) a customer statement of the nature and amount showing a claim in the financial service provider's records, and of the availability for collection of the customer statement at their respective branches of the financial service provider.

(3) The Bank shall cause to be published in the Gazette, in a daily newspaper of general circulation in the Republic or electronic media as the Bank may determine, a notice informing a depositor, creditor and bailor of the availability for collection of a customer statement referred to under subsection (2)(b)(ii).

(4) A customer statement referred to under subsection (2)(b)(ii) shall specify that a—

(a) claim by a depositor or creditor shall be filed with the Bank within sixty days from the date of a customer statement being made available; and

(b) customer or bailor shall be required to withdraw their property within sixty days from the date of a customer statement being made available.

(5) Any property held in safe custody, on the premises of the financial service provider, that has not been withdrawn before the date specified in the customer statement shall be taken into possession by the Bank in a manner determined by the Bank.

(6) Any funds and property held by the financial service provider as a bailee, together with inventories that have not been withdrawn, in accordance with this section, shall be considered unclaimed funds and property for the purposes of this Act and shall be dealt with accordingly.

(7) The Bank shall, in exercising the Bank's powers in liquidation under this Act, appoint a liquidation manager of a financial service provider whose terms of reference shall be determined by the Bank.

160. Despite the Corporate Insolvency Act, or any other relevant written law, nothing in this Part shall be taken to impute liability on the Bank or place an obligation on the Bank to meet the claims of a depositor, creditor or bailor of a financial service provider that has been compulsorily wound-up by the Bank.

Immunity of Bank against depositor, creditor or bailor claims
Cap. 431

161. The Bank shall, within six months after the last day for filing a claim in accordance with section 159(4)(a) —

Limitation on filing of claims

- (a) defer payment of a claim that is out of time;
- (b) determine the amount, if any, owing to each known depositor or creditor and the priority of creditors referred to under section 163;
- (c) file into court, a liquidation schedule showing the steps that the Bank proposes to take in winding-up a financial service provider;
- (d) reject a claim that is determined to be invalid and notify, in a determined manner and form, each person whose claim has been rejected in full or in part; and
- (e) publish once a week for three consecutive weeks, in the Gazette, a daily newspaper of general circulation in the Republic or other electronic media as the Bank may determine, a notice of the date and place where the liquidation schedule is available for inspection, and the date, not earlier than thirty days after the date of the third publication of the notice, on which the Bank shall file the liquidation schedule into court.

162. (1) A depositor, creditor or shareholder of a financial service provider or any other interested party may, within twenty days after the filing of a liquidation schedule referred to under section 161, file with the court an objection to a step proposed in the liquidation schedule.

Objection to liquidation schedule

(2) A court may, at the conclusion of hearing of an objection to under subsection (1)—

- (a) grant the objection;
- (b) order that a liquidation schedule be modified by the Bank;
or
- (c) set aside the objection.

(3) The Bank may, after filing a liquidation schedule referred to under section 161, settle, as the Bank may determine, an undisputed claim or a claim that has been allowed for settlement by a court.

(4) The Bank shall only settle a claim referred to under subsection (3) if a reserve account is established by the Bank in accordance with section 164.

Priority of creditors
Cap. 431

163. (1) Despite the Corporate Insolvency Act, or any other relevant written law, where the Bank compulsorily winds-up a financial service provider, the following claims shall be settled in priority to any other claims:

- (a) expenses incurred in the process of resolution or compulsory winding-up of the financial service provider;
- (b) claims due to the Bank under lender of last resort and facilities funded by the Bank;
- (c) insured deposits or claims of insured deposits in respect of—
 - (i) reimbursement of the insured deposits; or
 - (ii) funding a resolution under section 139 (5);
- (d) deposit liabilities not covered by the relevant authority responsible for deposit insurance;
- (e) taxes, rates due and statutory obligations;
- (f) charges and assessments due to the Bank;
- (g) creditors; and
- (h) shareholders.

(2) Despite subsection (1), the Bank may subordinate claims due to the Bank under the lender of last resort and facilities funded by the Bank to the claims of insured deposits and other deposit liabilities not covered by the relevant authority responsible for deposit insurance.

(3) After the Bank settles the claims referred to under subsection (1), any remaining claims not submitted within the period specified under section 159(4) shall be settled by the Bank, in the order of priority of their submission.

(4) Where the funds available for settlement of the claims referred to under subsections (1) and (3) are insufficient for settlement in full, the claims shall abate in equal proportions and for the purposes of this section each claim specified under subsection (1) shall constitute a separate class of claims, and the claims specified under subsection (2) shall constitute another separate class of claims.

(5) A claim shall not receive preferential treatment over other claims of a financial service provider unless that treatment is in accordance with the priority of creditors ranking under subsection (1).

(6) Despite subsection (1), for purposes of a bail-in under this Act, the write-down or conversion by the Bank shall be in reverse order of the priority of creditors, except where a bail-in does not apply to any claim referred to under subsection (1).

164. Despite the Corporate Insolvency Act, or any other relevant written law, the Bank shall, where the Bank compulsorily winds-up a financial service provider, establish a reserve account for purposes of settling the following claims against the financial service provider:

Reserve account for wound-up financial service provider
Cap. 431

- (a) present or future claims;
- (b) certain or contingent claims;
- (c) any customer accounts which are subject of legal proceedings and seized prior to the financial service provider being wound-up; or
- (d) any other claim that the Bank may determine.

165. The Bank may determine the requirements for debt restructuring or debt write-off for a financial service provider compulsorily wound-up.

Debt restructuring or write-off for wound-up financial service provider

166. The assets remaining after all claims have been settled in a compulsory winding-up of a financial service provider shall be distributed among the shareholders of the financial service provider.

Final distribution in compulsory winding-up

167. Any undistributed funds remaining after a final distribution referred to under section 166, shall be held by the Bank and subsequently managed in accordance with this Act.

Undistributed funds

168. (1) Despite this Part, the Bank may take possession of a financial business where the Bank determines that the financial business is engaging in conduct which is in contravention of this Act.

Power of Bank in relation to insolvent financial business

(2) Where the Bank winds-up a financial business, the winding-up shall take effect by the Bank—

- (a) cancelling the licence of the financial business; and
- (b) recommending, to an appropriate authority, the placing of the financial business in liquidation.

Termination of liquidation process

169. The Bank shall determine the termination of a liquidation process of a financial service provider under this Act.

PART XIII

ANTI-MONEY LAUNDERING AND COUNTERING TERRORISM FINANCING AND PROLIFERATION FINANCING

Anti-money

and countering terrorism financing
and proliferation

170. (1) The Bank shall adopt a risk-based approach to supervise financial service providers for purposes of monitoring and ensuring compliance with money laundering and countering of terrorism financing and proliferation financing or any other serious offence.

(2) The Bank shall apply consolidated supervision for monitoring compliance by financial service providers with anti-money laundering and countering terrorism financing and proliferation financing measures subject to core principles on effective banking supervision, where applicable.

(3) The Bank shall determine the frequency and intensity of on-site and off-site supervision for a financial service provider for anti-money laundering and countering of financing of terrorism and proliferation on the basis of the—

- (a) money laundering, terrorism financing or proliferation financing risks and the policies, internal controls and procedures associated with the financial service provider, as identified by the Bank's assessment of the risk profile of the financial service provider or banking group;
- (b) money laundering or terrorism financing risks present in the country; and
- (c) characteristics of the financial service provider or its banking group, in particular the diversity and number of financial service providers and the degree of discretion allowed to them under the risk-based approach.

(4) The Bank shall review the assessment of the money laundering, terrorism financing or proliferation financing risk profile of a financial service provider, including the risks of non-compliance, periodically and when there are major events or developments in the management and operations of the financial service provider or its banking group.

(5) A financial service provider shall identify and assess the money laundering risk, terrorism financing risk or proliferation financing risk prior to the development of new products and new business practices, including new delivery mechanisms, and the use of new or developing technologies for both new products and pre-existing products.

171. Where a financial service provider is determined to be non-compliant with preventive measures relating to money laundering, terrorism financing and proliferation financing, sanctions under the Financial Intelligence Centre Act, and the Anti-Terrorism and Non-Proliferation Act, shall apply.

REPORTING OBLIGATIONS

172. (1) A financial service provider shall keep and maintain records which shall contain—

Records to be kept and maintained

- (a) the articles of association and amendments to the articles of association of the financial service provider;
- (b) a register of shareholders of the financial service provider containing adequate, accurate and up-to-date information on the shareholders and the number of shares registered in the name of each shareholder;
- (c) a register of beneficial owners of the financial service provider containing adequate, accurate and up-to-date information on the beneficial owners;
- (d) the minutes of meetings and resolutions of shareholders of the financial service provider;
- (e) the minutes of meetings and resolutions of a board;
- (f) the business correspondence, with supporting accounting records, showing the state of the financial service provider's business affairs and transactions and the financial position of the financial service provider;
- (g) records, for each customer of the financial service provider, showing particulars of transactions with, or on an account of, the customer and the balance owing to, or owed by, the customer on a daily basis;
- (h) information relating to the legal ownership of customer accounts; and
- (i) any other records required to be kept and maintained as may be determined by the Bank.

(2) The records, referred to under subsection (1) (a), (b), (c), (d), (e) and (f) shall be kept and maintained at the principal administrative office of the financial service provider.

(3) The records referred to under subsection (1), shall be open for inspection at reasonable times by a—

- (a) director of a financial service provider; or
- (b) shareholder or creditor of a financial service provider or a personal representative of the shareholder or creditor.

(4) Despite subsection (3)(b), the records referred to under subsection (1)(c), (d) and (g) shall not be open for inspection by a shareholder or creditor or a personal representative of the shareholder or creditor.

Credit documentation

173. (1) A financial service provider shall keep and maintain, at the principal administrative office, credit documentation and other information relating to the business of the financial service provider with consumers and other persons, as the Bank may determine.

(2) In this section, “credit documentation” means documents relating to a contract entered into by a financial service provider with another person for the provision of an advance and includes the following documents:

- (a) acknowledged correspondence to a borrower on any variations made to the terms and conditions of a loan including, interest rate and loan tenure;
- (b) account statements showing the current indebtedness to the financial service provider of a borrower and where the debt is guaranteed, the details of a guarantor;
- (c) proof of collateral over which the financial service provider has a mortgage or charge as security for the settlement of a credit facility;
- (d) a statement of the terms of the credit, including the principal amount, rate of interest, schedule of repayments and a borrower’s objective or purpose for borrowing;
- (e) key fact statement;
- (f) documents evidencing the assessment and approval of a credit facility by the financial service provider;
- (g) information submitted to the Credit Registry, a credit reference bureau and information for verification of indebtedness; and
- (h) documentation relating to credit portfolio monitoring and management.

Manner of keeping records

174. A register or record that a financial service provider is required to keep and maintain in accordance with this Act shall be—

- (a) bound in loose leaf or photographic film form;
- (b) entered or recorded by any system of mechanical or electronic data processing or any other device or process capable of reproducing the information in intelligible written form within a reasonable time; and

- (c) capable of conversion, where the register or record is kept in one form, to any other readable and retrievable form.

175. (1) A financial service provider shall retain a register or record for a period of not less than ten years after a business relationship has ended, or after the date of an occasional transaction. Retention of records

(2) The Bank may require a financial service provider to retain a record for a longer period than the period specified under subsection (1) where the record relates to—

- (a) an on-going legal proceeding;
(b) an on-going criminal investigation;
(c) a dispute with a customer; or
(d) a matter of public interest.

176. (1) A financial service provider shall ensure that arrangements for retention of records are designed to protect data, records and materials from deliberate or accidental changes, manipulations or deletions for purposes of preserving the integrity of the data, records and materials throughout the retention period referred to under section 175. Maintenance of records

(2) A financial service provider shall, with respect to a register or record—

- (a) prevent loss or unauthorised destruction;
(b) prevent falsification of entries;
(c) facilitate the detection and correction of inaccuracies;
and
(d) prevent the use or access of information by an unauthorised person.

(3) A financial service provider may destroy a register or record, kept in accordance with this Act, at any time after the register or record has been converted to another form.

(4) A person shall not—

- (a) destroy, alter, mutilate or falsify a book, document, valuable security or account, which belongs to a financial service provider or customer, or any entry in the book, document, or account, or be party to any such act;
(b) make or be party to the making of a false entry in a book, document or account;
(c) omit, or be party to an omission of, an entry from a book, document or account; or

(d) destroy records relating to dormant accounts or accounts on which there are unresolved disputes.

(5) A person who contravenes subsection (4) commits an offence and is liable to pay an administrative penalty not exceeding four hundred thousand penalty units.

PART XV

APPEALS

Reasons for decisions and right to be heard

177. (1) The Bank shall, where the Bank makes a decision under this Act, by notice in writing—

(a) inform a person affected by the decision, stating the reasons for the decision; and

(b) invite the person referred to under paragraph (a) to make a written representation within a time specified in the notice.

(2) The Bank may, on receipt of a written representation referred to under subsection (1)(b), reaffirm, revoke or vary its decision and notify the person accordingly.

Right of appeal

178. A person aggrieved by a decision of the Bank may, within fourteen days of receipt of the decision, notify the Bank and the Minister, in writing, of the person's intention to appeal to a tribunal, stating the nature of the grievance and the grounds of the appeal.

Constitution of tribunal

179. (1) The Minister shall, within thirty days of receipt of a notification referred to under section 178, constitute an ad hoc tribunal consisting of the following members appointed by the Minister:

(a) a chairperson, who shall be a person qualified to be appointed as a judge of the High Court; and

(b) two other members with knowledge and experience in the matter under consideration.

(2) The members referred to under subsection (1) shall be appointed on terms and conditions as may be specified in their letters of appointment.

(3) A tribunal constituted under subsection (1) shall—

(a) afford an appellant the right to appear in person or be represented by a legal practitioner or an agent; and

(b) hear and determine an appeal on the merits of the appeal, within sixty days of being constituted, in accordance with this Act.

(4) The Chief Justice may, by statutory instrument, make rules for the procedure to be followed and the rules of evidence to be observed in proceedings before a tribunal.

180. (1) A tribunal shall not set aside a decision of the Bank made under this Act. Decisions of tribunal

(2) A decision of the Bank made under this Act shall remain in force unless set aside by a court.

(3) Despite subsections (1) and (2), a tribunal may order compensation against the Bank where the tribunal finds the Bank to have made a decision on the matter before the tribunal in contravention of this Act or any other relevant written law.

(4) An appeal against a decision of a tribunal shall lie to the Court of Appeal.

PART XVI

EXAMINATIONS AND INVESTIGATIONS

181. (1) The Bank may conduct an examination of a financial service provider to determine whether the financial service provider is— Examination of financial service providers

Cap. 99
Cap. 128

(e) complying with environmental, social and governance requirements; or

(f) complying with this Act and any other relevant written law.

(2) Despite any other relevant written law, the Bank may access the business of a financial service provider and examine—

(a) oral and documented information including information kept and maintained in computers, books, minutes, accounts and vouchers;

(b) cash and securities;

(c) any other thing in the possession, custody or under the control of a financial service provider or its affiliate;

(d) corporate governance, internal controls and risk management practices;

- (e) consumer protection and market conduct practices; or
- (f) information or activities on anti-money laundering and countering of terrorism financing and proliferation financing.

(3) The Bank shall, after the completion of an examination conducted in accordance with this section, submit a report to the chairperson of a board and direct the—

- (a) chairperson of the board to submit the report to a meeting of the board; and
- (b) financial service provider to submit to the Bank, in writing, actions to be taken on findings of the report.

(4) A report submitted by the Bank under subsection (3), shall be confidential and a director, senior officer or other employee of a financial service provider and any person who, by reason of the person's capacity or office, has access to the report shall not, without the prior written approval of the Bank, while holding that office, or after the termination of employment, communicate the report or any part of the report to any person other than a director, senior officer or other employee of that financial service provider.

(5) The Bank may, where the Bank determines that an examination conducted in accordance with this section shows that the business of a financial service provider is conducted in a manner detrimental to the interests of the financial service provider, depositors, customers, shareholders or the stability and integrity of the financial system—

- (a) direct the financial service provider to take remedial measures as the Bank may determine; or
- (b) appoint a person, at the cost of the financial service provider, who is competent to advise the financial service provider on the remedial measures to be taken under paragraph (a).

Obstruction
of examination

182. (1) A person commits an offence if that person—

- (a) negligently or with intent to deceive, makes a false or misleading statement or entry or omit to make a statement or entry in a book, report, statement or an account of the financial service provider; or
- (b) obstructs or attempts to obstruct—

- (c) a person licensed as a financial service provider; or
- (d) any other person as the Minister may, by statutory instrument, exempt.

(4) A relevant authority which, in accordance with any other written law, is responsible for the registration of companies or business names shall not register a company or a name of a business that would contravene subsection (1).

(5) The Bank shall, where a company or the name of a business is currently registered in a manner that contravenes subsection (1), notify a relevant authority responsible for the registration of the company or business name to direct the person or company to alter or modify the name for purposes of complying with this section.

(6) A person who contravenes this section commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding five hundred thousand penalty units or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years, or to both.

Validity of certain acts by financial service
provider

193. A transaction entered into by a financial service provider in contravention of this Act shall not be void or ineffective by reason only of that contravention and shall not be voidable at the instance of the financial service provider, unless a court orders otherwise.

Power to summon officer, director or shareholder

194. (1) The Bank may, where the Bank considers that an officer, a director or shareholder, past or present, of a financial service provider, has any information relating to the operations of the financial service provider which the Bank considers necessary for the performance of the Bank's supervisory functions under this Act, summon, in writing, that officer, director or shareholder.

(2) An officer, a director or shareholder referred to under subsection (1) commits an offence if that officer, director or shareholder—

- (a) fails, without reasonable excuse, to appear before the Bank and provide information;
- (b) withholds information; or

(c) provides information which is false in any material particular.

(3) An officer, a director or shareholder convicted of an offence under subsection (2) is liable to a fine not exceeding two hundred thousand penalty units or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years, or to both.

195. (1) The Bank may direct a financial service provider, an affiliate, associate, holding company or subsidiary or a person that controls that financial service provider, affiliate, associate, holding company or subsidiary, or any other person to furnish any information or data which the Bank may require in the performance of its functions.

Submission of information and documents to Bank

(2) A financial service provider that is required to furnish a document to the Bank shall, in the case of a document prepared by the financial service provider whose form has not been determined by the Bank, ensure that the document is signed by the chief executive officer or a senior officer authorised by the financial service provider.

(3) A person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable to pay an administrative penalty not exceeding four hundred thousand penalty units.

196. Subject to the Public Interest Disclosure (Protection of Whistleblowers) Act, an action or other proceeding shall not lie against any person who, in good faith, furnishes a document or provides information to the Bank or an agent of the Bank in accordance with this Act or any regulations, rules or regulatory statement made in accordance with this Act.

Protection of persons providing information under Act Cap. 102

197. (1) Despite any provision under this Act, the Bank may authorise a financial service provider to provide an alternative financial service.

Authorisation to provide alternative financial service

(2) The Bank may issue a regulatory statement relating to authorisation to provide an alternative financial service under subsection (1).

198. (1) The Bank may publish, in whole or in part, information or data furnished to the Bank under this Act where the Bank considers it necessary or appropriate to publish the information or data.

Publication of information

(2) Despite subsection (1), the Bank shall not publish personal information relating to a customer of a financial service provider, unless lawfully required to do so under this Act or any other relevant written law.

Extension of period to furnish document or information

199. The Bank may, on request by a financial service provider or an interested person, extend a period within which a financial service provider shall furnish a document or information to the Bank under this Act.

False
document

200. A person who issues, or takes part in the issuance of a document under this Act which is false in any material particular commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding two hundred thousand penalty units or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years, or to both.

Money
circulation schemes

201. (1) A person shall not—

- (a) conduct, or participate in, a money circulation scheme; or
- (b) issue a notice, circular, prospectus, proposal or other document inviting the public to subscribe to a money circulation scheme.

(2) The Bank may, as the supervisory authority of financial service providers under this Act, conduct an investigation of a money circulation scheme for purposes of determining whether the money circulation scheme is licensed under this Act.

(3) Where the Bank, after conducting an investigation referred to under subsection (2) determines that a money circulation scheme is not licensed under this Act—

- (a) a person who participates in that money circulation scheme shall not be compensated or refunded by the Bank any money which that person paid to the money circulation scheme; and
- (b) the Bank shall apply to a court to forfeit to the State the money paid by a person referred to under paragraph (a).

(4) A person who contravenes subsection (1) is liable to pay an administrative penalty not exceeding three million penalty units.

Utilisation of collateral
for settlement of certain obligations of financial

202. (1) Collateral that is held by the Bank on behalf of a clearing house or a payment system for the purpose of settling the obligations of a financial service provider that is a member of the clearing house or payment system, shall be utilised for that purpose by the Bank in accordance with the terms and conditions approved by the Bank and shall not be subject to any claim.

(2) The Bank shall issue a certificate certifying that the collateral or any part of the collateral referred to under subsection (1) has been utilised for the purposes specified in that subsection.

(3) The certificate referred to under subsection (2) shall be prima facie evidence of the matters stated in the certificate.

(4) Where a financial service provider referred to under subsection (1) is wound-up or placed in liquidation in accordance with this Act, the balance of the collateral, after the collateral has been utilised in accordance with that subsection, shall be dealt with in accordance with Part XII.
