(2) Except where the contrary intention appears, a reference in this Act to a standard is a reference to the standard as amended.

- (h) render conformity assessment and related services;
- (i) participate and represent Zambia in international, regional and foreign bodies with functions similar to the functions of the Bureau;
- (j) manage and coordinate the multilateral or bilateral interactions with national standards bodies from other countries;
- (k) provide information services to the public on standards and distribute Zambian National Standards and similar publications from international and regional bodies;
- (l) provide information for the protection of the consumers on products and services which do not comply with this Act;
- (m) cooperate with State institutions and international organisations in ensuring conformity with standards;
- (n) operate as the National Enquiry Point, in consultation with the relevant Ministries; and
- (o) provide for a research and development programme for new standards, improvement of existing standards, standardisation of test methodology and the articulation of future needs that might affect the standards environment.

(2) The Bureau may—

- (a) determine the fees payable for an inspection conducted for the purposes of this Act;
- (b) determine fees for training services and sale of Zambian National Standards testing services, product certification and system certification; and
- (c) determine what portion of a fee is payable in respect of any part of a year and the date on which the fee or portion of the fee is payable.

6. (1) There is constituted a Board for the Bureau which consists of the following part-time members appointed by the Minister:

Board of Bureau

- (a) a representative of the Ministry responsible for industry;
- (b) a representative of the Attorney General;
- (c) two persons representing manufacturers and chambers of commerce respectively; and
- (d) three persons with experience and knowledge in matters relevant to this Act.

(2) The Minister shall appoint the Chairperson of the Board from amongst the members of the Board who are not public officers.

(3) The members of the Board shall elect the Vice-Chairperson from amongst themselves.

(4) A person shall not be appointed as a member of the Board if that person—

(a) is not a citizen of Zambia;

(b) is an undischarged bankrupt;

(c) has a mental disability that makes the person incapable of performing the functions of a member; or

(d) is convicted of an offence under this Act or any other written law and sentenced to imprisonment for a period exceeding six months without the option of a fine.

(5) A member shall hold office for a period of three years and may be reappointed for one further period of three years.

(6) A member may resign upon giving one month's notice, in writing, to the Minister.

(7) The office of a member becomes vacant if the member—

(a) dies;

(b) resigns;

(c) is absent, without reasonable excuse, from three consecutive meetings of the Board of which the member has had notice;

(d) is adjudged bankrupt;

(e) is convicted of an offence under this Act or any other written law and sentenced to imprisonment for a period exceeding six months without the option of a fine; or

(f) has a mental disability which makes the member incapable of performing the functions of a member.

(8) A member shall, on the expiration of the period for which the member is appointed, continue to hold office until a successor is appointed, but in no case shall the further period exceed four months.

(9) The Minister shall, whenever the office of a member becomes vacant before the expiring of the term of office, appoint another person in place of that member but that person shall hold office as a member only for the unexpired part of the term of the Board.

7. (1) The Board shall be the governing body of the Bureau and shall exercise and perform the functions of the Bureau. Functions of Board

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1), the functions of the Board are to—

- (a) oversee the implementation and successful operation of the policy and functions of the Bureau;
- (b) review and approve the policy and strategic plans of the Bureau;
- (c) approve the annual budget and plans of the Bureau;
- (d) approve the methodology for the development and approval of Zambian National Standards;
- (e) approve the investment of the funds of the Bureau in accordance with Ministerial approval and relevant regulations;
- (f) monitor and evaluate the performance of the Bureau against budgets and plans; and
- (g) do all such things as are connected with, or incidental to, the functions of the Board under this Act.

(3) The Minister may enter into a performance contract with the Board for a specified period, which shall be consistent with the provisions of this Act.

8. (1) Subject to the other provisions of this Act, the Board may regulate its own procedure. Proceedings of Board

(2) The Board shall meet for the transaction of its business at least once in every three months at such places and times as it may determine.

(3) A meeting of the Board may be called by the Chairperson upon giving notice of not less than fourteen days and shall be called by the Chairperson if one third or more of the members so request in writing, except that if the urgency of a particular matter does not permit the giving of the notice, a special meeting may be called upon giving a shorter notice.

(4) Four members shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of the Board.

(5) There shall preside at a meeting of the Board—

- (a) the Chairperson;
- (b) in the absence of the Chairperson, the Vice-Chairperson; and

(c) in the absence of the Chairperson and the Vice-Chairperson, such other member as the members present may elect for the purpose of that meeting.

(6) A decision of the Board on any question shall be by a majority of the members present and voting at the meeting and in the event of an equality of votes, the person presiding at the meeting shall have a casting vote in addition to that person's deliberative vote.

(7) A member appointed under section 6(1) (a) and (b) who is, for any reason, unable to attend a meeting of the Board may, in writing, nominate another person from the same organisation to attend the meeting in that member's stead and that person shall be deemed to be a member for the purpose of that meeting.

(8) The Board may invite a person, whose presence is in its opinion desirable, to attend and to participate in the deliberations of the meeting of the Board, but that person shall have no vote.

(9) The validity of any proceedings, acts or decisions of the Board shall not be affected by a vacancy in the membership of the Board or by any defect in the appointment of a member or by reason that a person not entitled to do so took part in the proceedings.

(10) The Board shall cause minutes to be kept of the proceedings of every meeting of the Board and every meeting of a committee of the Board.

Committees of Board

9. (1) The Board may, for the purpose of performing its functions under this Act, establish such committees as it considers necessary and delegate to any of those committees such of its functions as it may determine.

(2) The Board may appoint as members of a committee, persons who are or are not members, except that at least one member of a committee shall be a member of the Board.

(3) A person serving as a member of a committee shall hold office for such period as the Board may determine.

(4) Subject to any specific or general direction of the Board, a committee may regulate its own procedure.

Emoluments

10. A member of the Board or any committee of the Board shall be paid such emoluments as the Emoluments Commission may determine.

Executive Director,
Directors, Secretary and other staff

11. (1) The Board shall appoint the Executive Director of the Bureau on such terms and conditions as it may determine with the approval of the Emoluments Commission.

(2) The Executive Director shall be the chief executive officer of the Bureau and shall be responsible, under the direction of the Board, for the day-to-day administration of the Bureau.

(3) The Executive Director shall attend meetings of the Board and may address a meeting, but shall not vote on any matter.

(4) The Board may appoint, on such terms and conditions as it may determine with the approval of the Emoluments Commission, the Directors, Secretary and such other staff as it considers necessary for the performance of the functions of the Bureau and Board under this Act.

(5) The Secretary shall perform corporate secretarial duties for the Board and such other functions as the Board may determine, under the direction of the Board and the Executive Director.

12. (1) The Board may, whenever the need arises, convene an ad hoc consultative forum consisting of representatives of organisations and State institutions with an interest in promoting standardisation in industry and commerce.

Standards
Consultative Forum

(2) The Standards Consultative Forum shall—

(a) consider matters that promote consumer protection, industrial efficiency and development through standardisation;

(b) make recommendations to the Board on—

(i) the impact of standards in public safety and health and factors affecting compliance with standards;

(ii) areas of cooperation to secure the adoption of standards; and

(iii) any other matter on which the Board requests for input for purposes of this Act; and

(c) recommend areas for law reform taking into account international best practice.

(3) The Board shall establish rules for the procedure of the standards consultative forum which are consistent with the provisions of this Act.

13. (1) A person who is present at a meeting of the Board or a committee of the Board at which any matter is the subject of consideration, and in which matter that person or that person's relative or associate is directly or indirectly interested in a private capacity shall, as soon as is practicable after the commencement of the meeting, declare that interest and shall not, unless the Board or the committee otherwise directs, take part in any consideration or discussion of, or vote on, any question relating to, that matter.

Disclosure
of interest

(2) A disclosure of interest made under sub section (1) shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting at which it is made.

(3) A person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable, upon conviction, to a fine not exceeding two hundred thousand penalty units or imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years, or to both.

Prohibition of publication
or disclosure
of information to
persons

14. (1) A person shall not, without the consent, in writing, given by or on behalf of the Bureau, publish or disclose to an unauthorised person, otherwise than in the course of that person's duties, the contents of a document, communication or information which relates to, or which has come to the knowledge of that person in the course of that person's duties under this Act.

(2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable, upon conviction, to a fine not exceeding two hundred thousand penalty units or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years, or to both.

(3) A person who, having any information which to the knowledge of that person has been published or disclosed in contravention of subsection (1), unlawfully publishes or communicates the information to another person commits an offence and is liable, upon conviction, to a fine not exceeding two hundred thousand penalty units or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years, or to both.

Immunity

15. An action or other proceeding shall not lie or be instituted against a member of the Board, committee of the Board or a member of staff of the Bureau for, or in respect of, an act or thing done or omitted to be done in good faith in the exercise or performance of any of the powers conferred under this Act.

PART III
ZAMBIAN NATIONAL STANDARDS

16. (1) The Bureau shall establish and maintain a system to develop and publish Zambian National Standards in conformity with international norms and best practice. Zambian National Standards

(2) The Bureau may, in the development of a Zambian National Standard—

(a) establish national technical committees and provide for their composition, functions and tenure; and

(b) recognise standards development organisations for a specified scope of activity, except that such organisations shall comply with the criteria set out in the standard development process referred to in subsection (3).

(3) The Bureau shall develop and maintain a standard to provide for the process to be used to set or amend and approve a Zambian National Standard.

(4) The Zambian National Standard referred to in subsection (1) shall be approved by the Board and shall comply with the requirements of international and regional trade agreements to which Zambia is a party.

(5) The Bureau may withdraw a Zambian National Standard if it is no longer required or is outdated or cannot be amended or revised.

(6) Where the Zambian National Standard referred to in subsection (5) is used in regulation or incorporated in a written law, the Bureau shall consult the relevant State institution responsible for the regulation of the written law before withdrawing the Zambian National Standard.

17. (1) The Bureau may develop, publish, amend and withdraw normative and informative documents other than Zambian National Standards. Development of normative and informative
documents

(2) A document published in terms of subsection (1) shall specify that the document does not have the status of a Zambian National Standard.

18. (1) The Bureau shall publish a Zambian National Standard, including an amendment, revision or withdrawal of the Zambian National Standard, in the Gazette. Publication of standard

(2) The notice in the Gazette shall—

(a) state the title, number and date of issue of the Zambian National Standard; and

(b) contain a summary of the scope and purpose of the Zambia National Standard or its amendment.

(3) Despite the provisions of any other written law, a person shall not issue a document which creates or may create the impression that it contains or is a Zambian National Standard.

Incorporation of standard
in legislation

19. (1) A Zambian National Standard that is published in the Gazette pursuant to section 18 may be incorporated in any law by reference or title and number.

(2) Where a Zambian National Standard is incorporated in any law in terms of subsection (1) without indicating the year or edition number and that Zambian National Standard is amended or revised, the amended or revised Zambian National Standard shall be deemed to have been incorporated.

Copyright in standard and publication

20. (1) Despite the provisions of any other law—

(a) the copyright in a Zambian National Standard or a publication issued by the Bureau is vested in the Bureau; and

(b) the Bureau shall not be deprived of the copyright referred to in paragraph (a), if a Zambian National Standard, a provision of the Zambian National Standard or any publication issued by the Bureau is incorporated into a law in terms of this Act or any other law.

(2) A person shall not publish, reproduce or record in any manner or form a document or part of the document in which the copyright vests in the Bureau, without the authorisation of the Bureau.

Restriction on certain claims on products and services

21. (1) A person shall not claim or declare that a product or service conforms with a Zambian National Standard or other publication of the Bureau, unless the claim or declaration is true and accurate in all material aspects.

(2) A person shall not, in connection with the sale of a product or the supply of a service, refer directly or indirectly to the Bureau or the Board in a manner or under circumstances likely to create the impression that the product or service has been approved by the Bureau or the Board, unless the product or service is formally licensed in terms of a conformity assessment scheme administered by or on behalf of the Bureau under Part IV.

PART IV

CONFORMITY ASSESSMENT SERVICES

22. (1) The Bureau may, with the approval of the Board, establish, maintain and provide inspection services to the public and private sectors. Inspection services

(2) The Bureau may enter into contracts with the public and private sectors for the provision of inspection services.

(3) The Bureau shall, in order to ensure the integrity of the inspection services—

- (a) appoint suitably qualified staff with knowledge of the relevant sectors;
- (b) establish suitable infrastructure to enable it to perform the required tests; and
- (c) operate quality management systems in accordance with the relevant international standards.

23. (1) The Bureau may, with the approval of the Board, establish and maintain testing laboratories in order to provide scientific and technical services to the public and private sectors. Testing services

(2) The Bureau shall, in providing analytical and testing services and in setting up the testing laboratories—

- (a) provide information on analytical methods and comparative testing to other laboratories;
- (b) co-ordinate the development of new analytical methods; and
- (c) participate in interlaboratory comparisons and proficiency testing schemes among testing laboratories at national, regional and international level.

(3) The Bureau may enter into contracts with the public and private sectors for the provision of testing services.

(4) The Bureau shall, in order to ensure the integrity of the testing services—

- (a) appoint suitably qualified persons with knowledge of the relevant sectors;
- (b) establish suitable infrastructure to enable it to perform the required tests; and
- (c) operate quality management systems in accordance with the relevant international standards.

- (5) The Bureau shall, in order to ensure the integrity of the testing services, attain accreditation for test laboratories to international standards.
- Product certification
- 24. (1) The Minister may, on the recommendation of the Board, by statutory instrument—
- (a) establish product certification schemes to be administered by the Bureau; and
- (b) declare a mark to be a certification mark for the purposes of certifying conformity of a product with a declared standard.
- Cap. 401
- (2) A certification mark shall not be declared which so closely resembles a trade mark registered under the Trade Marks Act as to be likely to be mistaken for that trade mark.
- (3) A person shall not apply a certification mark to a product that does not comply with the requirements of the relevant standard except with the authority of the Bureau, in writing, and in accordance with this Act or any other relevant law.
- (4) The Bureau shall not unreasonably withhold an authorisation of a product that conforms with the relevant standard.
- (5) A person shall not apply to a product or commodity, or otherwise use in connection with the supply or promotion of a product or commodity, a mark that so closely resembles a certification mark as to be likely to be mistaken for the certification mark, unless it was registered as a trade mark before the commencement of the repealed Act.
- Cap. 416
- (6) A person shall not, in connection with the supply or promotion of a product or commodity, make any reference to the Board or the Bureau or to any certification mark, except to the extent authorised under subsection (3).
- (7) A person who contravenes this section commits an offence and is liable, upon conviction, to a fine not exceeding three hundred thousand penalty units.
- System certification
- 25. (1) The Minister may, on recommendation of the Board, by statutory instrument—
- (a) establish a system certification scheme to be administered by the Bureau; and
- (b) declare a mark to be a certification mark for the purposes of providing independent evidence of conformity of a company, process or body with a management system standard.

(2) A certification mark shall not be declared which so closely resembles a trade mark registered under the Trade Marks Act as to be likely to be mistaken for that trade mark. Cap. 401

(3) A person may, with the written authority of the Bureau, in accordance with this Act or any other written law, apply for a certification mark in respect of a management system where the system conforms with the requirements of the relevant standard.

(4) The Bureau shall not unreasonably withhold an authorisation under this section for a management system that conforms with the relevant standard.

(5) A person shall not apply to a product or commodity, or otherwise use in connection with the supply or promotion of a management system, any mark that so closely resembles a certification mark as to be likely to be mistaken for the certification mark, unless it was registered as a trade mark before the commencement of the repealed Act. Cap. 416

(6) A person shall not, in connection with the promotion of a management system, make any reference to the Board or the Bureau or to any certification mark, except to the extent authorised under subsection (3).

(7) A person who contravenes this section commits an offence and is liable, upon conviction, to a fine not exceeding three hundred thousand penalty units.

26. The certification mark for all products and services in the Republic shall be as prescribed by the Minister by statutory instrument. Certification mark
