- 1. This Act may be cited as the Traditional Beer Act.

Short title

(As amended by No. 25 of 1969)

- 2. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires-

Interpretation

"Board" means a Board appointed under section four, and includes and shall be deemed always to have included any person so appointed as a Board;

"local authority" means a municipal council, township council or board;

"malt" includes any kind of grain or other vegetable product in process of fermentation;

"traditional beer" means-

- (a) the drink which is brewed from grain or other vegetable matter and is commonly known as local beer, Lusaka beer, bwalwa, mowa, lwalwa, bucwala, bukoko or chibuku;
- (b) honey beer; and
- (c) such other intoxicating liquor as the Minister may by statutory notice prescribe.

(As amended by No. 30 of 1950, No. 45 of 1958 and No. 25 of 1969)

3. Save as in section four provided, the sale by any person of traditional beer is prohibited-

Restriction on sale of traditional beer
Cap. 281

- (a) in any area declared to be municipality or township under the Local Government Act; and
- (b) in any area defined by regulations made under paragraph (b) of section four.

(No. 32 of 1941)

4. The Minister may by regulations-

Regulations as to sale, manufacture, etc., of traditional beer.

- (a) in respect of any area declared to be municipality or township under the Local Government Act-
 - (i) prohibit or restrict the making, possession, introduction or removal of traditional beer save as may be prescribed by such regulations;
 - (ii) authorise the manufacture, possession and sale of traditional beer by the local authority of any municipality or township or by any person acting under the immediate supervision of the local authority;
- (b) in respect of any other area or portion of Zambia, to be defined in such regulations-
 - (i) appoint a Board for such area;
 - (ii) prohibit or restrict the making, possession, introduction or removal of traditional beer save as may be prescribed by such regulations;
 - (iii) authorise the manufacture, possession and sale of traditional beer by the Board appointed for such area or by any person acting under the authority of such Board;
- (c) declare any area, other than the areas mentioned in paragraph (a) or defined by regulations made under paragraph (b), to be a guard area and in respect of such area prohibit, control or restrict the sale of traditional beer.

(As amended by No. 48 of 1940, No. 32 of 1941, No. 25 of 1953, No. 45 of 1958, G.N. No. 304 of 1964 and No. 25 of 1969)

5. No person shall supply traditional beer to any person already inebriated from the effects of drinking.

Inebriated person not to be supplied

(As amended by No. 25 of 1969)

6. Repealed by Act No. 22 of 1972.

Prohibition of kachasu

6A. It shall be unlawful for any person to prepare, use, possess, dispense, sell or expose for sale, the intoxicating liquor, by whatever name called, which is obtained through a process of distillation and is commonly known as kachipembe, kachasu, kapuli or lutuku.

(No. 42 of 1974)

7. (1) No person carrying on the business of a licensed trader or selling or exposing for sale any article of food or drink shall, unless authorised under subsection (2), keep, supply or cause to be supplied any traditional beer either at the place where such business is carried on or in connection with any transaction having relation to the said business.

No licensed trader except under permit to supply any traditional beer

(2) No person shall brew and supply traditional beer in the form of rations to persons in his employ unless he is in possession of a valid permit.

(3) The Minister may, by statutory instrument, make regulations governing the issue of such permit and the conditions under which the same may be granted, suspended, refused or cancelled and also governing the conditions under which traditional beer may be supplied by employers to persons in their employ.

(As amended by G.N. No. 304 of 1964 and No. 25 of 1969)

8. (1) Any beer or malt or the apparatus, utensils or materials for making the same found under circumstances which afford reasonable grounds for suspecting a contravention of this Act or of any regulations made thereunder may be seized and removed and if perishable may be sold and, on the conviction for such a contravention of the owner of the articles so seized or of the person in whose possession they were found, such articles or their proceeds may be confiscated by order of a magistrate.

Seizure of utensils

(2) If the owner of any articles so seized cannot be ascertained, they or their proceeds may be confiscated seven days after seizure unless sooner claimed.

(As amended by No. 36 of 1933)

9. Any Administrative Officer or police officer of or above the rank of Sub-Inspector or, if authorised thereto by any of the foregoing, any member of the Zambia Police Force may enter upon any premises upon which there is reasonable ground for suspecting that there is traditional beer or malt or the apparatus, utensils or materials for making the same contrary to this Act or any regulations made thereunder.

Entry on premises

(As amended by No. 47 of 1963, G.N. No. 502 of 1964 and No. 25 of 1969)

10. Any person contravening this Act or any regulations made thereunder may be arrested without a warrant if the circumstances are such that immediate arrest appears necessary to prevent his escape.

Powers of arrest

11. The occupier or person having charge of the premises upon which a contravention of this Act or of any regulations made thereunder, together with any person who participated therein, shall be liable to be convicted of such contravention unless he can prove that such contravention took place without his knowledge.

Liability of occupier

12. In any proceeding against any person for contravening this Act or any regulations made thereunder, the fact of more traditional beer being on the premises of such person than is reasonably required for the person residing therein and his family or persons usually residing with him shall be deemed prima facie evidence of such a contravention.

Excessive quantity
prima facie evidence

(As amended by No. 25 of 1969)

13. Any person contravening the provisions of this Act or of any regulations made thereunder shall be guilty of an offence and shall on conviction be liable to a fine not exceeding three hundred penalty units or, in default of payment, to imprisonment with or without hard labour for a period not exceeding three months and, on a second or subsequent conviction, to a fine not exceeding seven hundred and fifty penalty units or to imprisonment with or without hard labour for a period not exceeding six months.

Penalty

(As amended by Act No. 6 of 1974 and 13 of 1994)

PART I GENERALPART I

GENERAL

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Traditional Beer Regulations.

Title

2. In these Regulations, unless the context otherwise requires-

Interpretation

"area" means any one of the areas set out in the First, Second and Third Schedules;

"guard area" means any one of the areas set out in the Fourth Schedule.

(As amended by No. 224 of 1945)

3. (1) The local authorities set out in the third column of the First Schedule are hereby authorised to manufacture, be in possession of and sell traditional beer in accordance with these Regulations and to issue permits in accordance with Part III within the respective areas set out in the first column of and defined in the second column of the said Schedule.

Local authorities,
Boards and permit
authorities

(2) The several persons set out in the third column of the Second Schedule are hereby appointed to be Boards for the respective areas set out in the first column of and defined in the second column of the said Schedule, and are hereby authorised to manufacture, be in possession of and sell traditional beer in accordance with these Regulations and to issue permits in accordance with Part III within the aforesaid areas.

(3) The several persons set out in the third column of the Third Schedule are hereby appointed to be Boards for the respective areas set out in the first column of and defined in the second column of the said Schedule, and are hereby authorised to issue permits in accordance with Part III.

(4) The several persons set out in the third column of the Fourth Schedule are hereby appointed to be permit authorities for the respective areas set out in the first column of and defined in the second column of the said Schedule, and are hereby authorised to issue permits in guard areas.

(5) Any Board or other authority authorised to issue permits may change such fees as may from time to time be approved by the Minister.

(As amended by No. 224 of 1945, 60 of 1953 and 304 of 1964)

4. Save as in Parts II, III and IV provided, no person shall-

Prohibition on making,
etc., of traditional beer

- (a) at any place within an area make, sell or be in possession of any traditional beer;
- (b) introduce or cause to be introduced into an area any traditional beer.

5. (1) The areas set out in the Fourth Schedule are hereby declared to be guard areas.

Guard areas

(2) No person shall sell traditional beer within a guard area unless he is in possession of a permit authorising him to sell traditional beer within such area.

(3) Such permit shall specify the name of the person so authorised, and the permit authority may limit the quantity of traditional beer to be sold and may impose any other conditions in regard thereto as it may think fit.

(4) Such limitation of quantity and such conditions shall be endorsed on the permit and any breach or non-observance thereof shall be deemed to be a contravention of these Regulations.

(No. 224 of 1945)

PART II SALE OF TRADITIONAL BEERPART II

SALE OF TRADITIONAL BEER

PERMITS TO MANUFACTURE, ETC., TRADITIONAL BEER

10. This Part shall apply to the areas specified in the First, Second and Third Schedules.

Application of Part III

(No. 60 of 1953)

11. For the purposes of this Part-

Interpretation for purposes of Part III

"Board" means the authority or any of the Boards set out in the third column of the Schedules to which this Part applies.

(No. 60 of 1953)

12. (1) The Board or some person authorised by the Board may issue or cause to be issued a permit authorising any person to make, be in possession of or introduce traditional beer within an area.

Permits

(2) Such permit shall specify the name of the person so authorised, and the Board may limit the quantity of traditional beer to be made, possessed or introduced, and may impose any other conditions in regard thereto as it may think fit.

(3) Such limitation of quantity and such conditions shall be endorsed on the permit and any breach or non-observance thereof shall be deemed to be contravention of these Regulations.

PART IV TRADITIONAL BEER RATIONS

TRADITIONAL BEER RATIONS

13. No employer shall brew and supply traditional beer in the form of rations to persons in his employ unless he is in possession of a traditional beer ration permit (hereinafter in this Part called a "permit") in the form contained in the Fifth Schedule.

Traditional beer ration permit

14. (1) Permits shall only be granted by a Resident Secretary, and the granting or refusal thereof shall be in his absolute discretion.

Granting of permits

(2) An application for a permit shall be made by the employer to an Administrative Officer stationed in the District in which the employees are working and shall be forwarded by the Administrative Officer with his recommendation to the Permanent Secretary of the Province within which such District is situate.

(3) Every permit shall expire on the 31st December next following the day of issue.

(4) No fee shall be charged for the issue of a permit.

(5) The Permanent Secretary may, if he thinks fit, without assigning any reason, revoke a permit at any time.

(As amended by No. 502 of 1964)

15. Every employer to whom a permit has been issued shall set aside and designate a separate building or separate buildings for the purpose of the brewing and supplying of traditional beer, and such building or buildings shall be enclosed with a fence. The area so enclosed shall be known as the brewery premises.

Brewery premises
