This clause sets out the savings and transitional provisions.

Concerns raised by stakeholders

8. All the stakeholders who appeared before your Committee were in full support of the Bill. They, however, expressed concern on the provisions presented hereunder.

i. Clause 3

This clause provides for the composition of the Board and that the Minister shall be the chairperson. However, it does not define which minister is being referred to. Further, this provision does not provide for the Board to be ratified by the National Assembly, neither does it provide for the qualifications of the board members.

The stakeholders, therefore, proposed that “minister” be defined and the requirement for ratification by the National Assembly be provided for. Further, the qualifications for members of the Board should be specified in the Bill.

ii. Clause 6

This clause provides that the Board may regulate its own procedure. The stakeholders were of the view that this was likely to result in inconsistency in the manner the Board conducted its affairs. Therefore, they recommended that the procedure of the Board be laid out by Statutory Instrument for avoidance of uncertainty and arbitrariness.

iii. Clause 18

This clause provides that a person, who has been married to a citizen of Zambia for a period of at least five years, may apply in the prescribed manner to be registered as a citizen. Many stakeholders were of the view that although the Constitution provides for it, five years was not long enough a period to determine the genuineness of the marriage. Considering that this provision has been misused previously, the stakeholders were of the view that the Constitution and the Bill should be amended to increase the period to at least ten years.

iv. Clause 19

This clause provides for the citizenship of an adopted child. Some of the stakeholders were of the view that it was not enough to prove the citizenship of the adoptive parent or the production of a valid adoption certificate. They, therefore, recommended that the child's background also be thoroughly checked to forestall foul play.

Committee's Observations and Recommendations

9. In supporting the Bill, your Committee makes observations and recommendations as presented hereunder.

(a) Clause 3

Your Committee notes that this clause provides for the composition of the Board and the Minister being the Chairperson. It does not, however, define which minister is being referred to. Further, this provision does not provide for the Board to be ratified by the National Assembly, neither does it provide for the qualifications of the board members.

Your Committee, therefore, recommends that "minister" be defined and the requirement for ratification by the National Assembly be provided for. Further, the qualifications for members of the Board should be specified in the Bill.

(b) Clause 6

Your Committee notes that this clause provides that the Board may regulate its own procedure. It is the view of your Committee that this provision may result in inconsistency in the manner the Board conducts its business and therefore, recommends that the procedure of the Board be laid out by Statutory Instrument for avoidance of uncertainty and arbitrariness.

(c) Clause 18

This clause provides that a person, who has been married to a citizen of Zambia for a period of at least five years, may apply in the prescribed manner to be registered as a citizen. Your Committee agrees with the stakeholders who were of the view that although the Constitution provides for it, five years is not long enough a period to determine the genuineness of the marriage and therefore base application for citizenship on it.

Your Committee, therefore, recommends that both the Constitution and the Bill should be amended to increase the period of marriage to at least ten years to forestall the occurrence of marriages of convenience.

(d) Clause 19

This clause provides for the citizenship of an adopted child. Your Committee notes that most of the criteria centres on the adoptive parent and not much on the adopted child.

Your Committee agrees with the stakeholders that it is not enough to prove the citizenship of the adoptive parent or the production of a valid adoption certificate and consequently recommends that the child's background also be thoroughly checked to ensure that adoptive parents, particularly of foreign origin, do not use this provision to register their own relatives as adopted children.

Conclusion

10. In conclusion, your Committee wishes to express its gratitude to you, Mr Speaker, for granting it the opportunity to scrutinise the Citizenship of Zambia Bill, N.A.B No. 33 of 2016. Your Committee also wishes to thank the Office of the Clerk of the National Assembly for the support rendered to it throughout its deliberations. It is indebted to all the witnesses who appeared before it for their co-operation in providing the necessary briefs despite the short notice. Your Committee is hopeful that the observations and recommendations contained in this report will enable the House make an informed decision on the Bill.

We have the honour to be, Sir, your Committee on national Security and Foreign Affairs, mandated to scrutinise the Citizenship of Zambia Bill, N.A.B No. 33 of 2016 for the Fifth Session of the Eleventh National Assembly.
